12 Geo. 1. c. 33.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of 'Chancery; after reciting (amongst other Things) That Fleetwood Dormer and John Borrett, Esquires, both 'deceased, formerly Masters of the said Court, and Richard Godfrey and Edward Conway, Esquires, then 'Masters of the same Court, had been deficient in answering the Money and Effects ordered by the Court 'into their Hands, and which Deficiency, after deducting what should be made and produced out of the 'Estates and Effects of the said deficient Masters, and the Sum of thirty thousand Pounds given by his Ma'jesty, on the Address of the House of Commons, towards the Relief of the said Suitors, amounted, ac'cording to the then Computation, to the Sum of fifty-one thousand eight hundred fifty-one Pounds nine'teen Shillings and eleven Pence Farthing, besides several other Claims on the Offices of four of the said 'deficient Masters remaining, and which, if allowed, would greatly increase the said Deficiency; it was, for 'the Relief of the said Suitors, and making a Provision for Payment of their just Debts and Demands, en'acted, That there should be raised, collected and paid, throughout England, the Dominion of Wales and 'the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Term of sixteen Years, from the second Day of August one 'thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, for every Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, upon which any 'Original Writ (except such Original on which a Writ of Capias issues) Subpœna, Bill of Middlesex, La'titat, Writ of Capias, Quo minus, Writ of Dedimus Potestatem to take Answers, examine Witnesses, or 'appoint Guardians, or any other Writ whatsoever, or any other Process or Mandate that should issue out 'of, or pass the Seals of any of the Courts at Westminster, Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, Courts in 'Counties Palatine, or any other Court whatsoever holding Plea where the Debt or Damage doth amount 'to forty Shillings, or above, or the Thing in Demand is of that Value, should be ingrossed or written (Writs 'of Covenant for levying Fines, Writs of Entry for suffering Common Recoveries, and Writs of Habeas Cor'pus, always excepted) the Sum of six Pence; for every Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper upon which 'any Entry of any Action in the Mayor's or Sheriffs Courts of London, and in Courts in all Corporations, 'and other Courts whatsoever, out of which no Writs, Process or Mandates issue, holding Plea where the 'Debt or Damage doth amount to forty Shillings, or above, shall be ingrossed or written, the Sum of six 'Pence; and for every Piece of Vellum, Parchment or Paper, upon which should be ingrossed or written

'any Citation or Monition made in any Eccleſiaſtical Court, the Sum of ſix Pence; and the ſaid Sums and 'Duties ſo to be raiſed and collected, were thereby appointed to be under the Direction and Management 'of the Commiſſioners of the Stamp Duties; and ſuch Proviſion was made for the levying, receiving and 'enforcing the Payment of the ſame, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned, expreſſed and provided in that Be-'half: And it was thereby enacted, That the Money thereby to be raiſed and collected, ſhould be paid into 'the Bank of England; and the ſaid Court of Chancery was thereby impowered to borrow any Sum of Mo-'ney upon the Fund thereby granted, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of ſixty thouſand Pounds: And 'it was thereby alſo enacted, That all the Money then depoſited, or thereafter to be depoſited in the Bank, 'on Account of the Suitors of the ſaid Court of Chancery, or by Order of the ſaid Court, and all the Mo-'nies ariſing by the Rates and Duties given by the ſaid Act, or borrowed thereon, and paid into the Bank, 'ſhould be accounted and taken to be one common and general Caſh, and ſhould be promiſcuouſly iſſued 'and iſſueable when and as the Court of Chancery ſhould direct, for the anſwering, paying and clearing 'the Debts and Demands of any of the Suitors of the ſaid Court: And whereas by another Act of Parlia-9 Geo. 2. c. 32. 'ment made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for continuing, for the 'Purpoſes therein mentioned, the additional Duties upon ſtamped Vellum, Parchment and Paper, laid by an Act 'paſſed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt, after taking Notice of the 'ſaid former Act, and that upon ſtating the total Deficiency of the ſaid four Maſters, and the Produce of the 'Fund made liable to, and appropriated for Payment of the ſame, it appeared that the Deficiency ſtanding 'out on the eighth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty-five, on the Offices of the ſaid four 'Maſters, was reduced to the Sum of twenty-four thouſand eight hundred ninety-one Pounds nine Shil-'lings and ten Pence; and that there was due from John Bennett Eſquire, one other of the Maſters of the 'ſaid Court of Chancery, to Humphrey Bell a Suitor of the ſaid Court therein mentioned, the Sum of 'eleven thouſand four hundred eighty-five Pounds four Shillings and five Pence, with Intereſt; and that 'the ſaid John Bennett had no Eſtate or Effects left to ſatisfy the ſaid Debt, or any Part thereof; and that 'it was computed that the Duties granted by the former Act, would not be ſufficient to raiſe the ſaid two 'Sums of twenty-four thouſand eight hundred ninety-one Pounds nine Shillings and ten Pence, and 'eleven thouſand four hundred eighty-five Pounds four Shillings and five Pence, unleſs the ſaid Duties were 'farther continued, and the Time for raiſing the ſame enlarged, it is enacted, That the ſaid Duties granted 'by the ſaid former Act, ſhould be continued, and be payable and paid upon the ſeveral Writs and Law 'Proceedings therein mentioned, for the farther Term of four Years, to be computed from the ſecond Day 'of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-two; and that out of the Money which had ariſen, and 'been collected by and out of the Duties directed to be levied by the ſaid former Act, the ſaid Sum of 'eleven thouſand four hundred eighty-five Pounds four Shillings and five Pence, ſhould be iſſued and paid 'out of the general and common Caſh of the Bank, when and as the ſaid Court of Chancery ſhould direct, 'in Satisfaction of the ſaid Debt due from the ſaid John Bennett, as aforeſaid: And it is thereby provided, 'enacted and declared, That when and as ſoon as the Deficiency of the Suitors Money thereby, and by 'the ſaid former Act directed and appointed to be anſwered and paid, and all Money to be borrowed on the 'Credit of the ſame if neceſſary, ſhould have been fully paid and ſatisfied; then, and from thenceforth, all 'the Surplus Money which ſhould have been raiſed out of the ſaid Duties, given, granted and continued 'by the ſaid above-mentioned Acts, over and beyond what ſhould be ſufficient for anſwering ſuch De-'ficiency, and Money lent, ſhould be reſerved for the Benefit of the Publick, and ſhould not be applied 'to any other Uſe or Uſes than ſuch as ſhould be thereafter directed by Parliament: And whereas the ſaid 'Deficiency, and all the Money provided and directed to be paid by the ſaid former Acts, or either of 'them, by and out of the Fund thereby appropriated for that Purpoſe, have been fully paid and ſatisfied, 'and there now remains in the Bank of England as a Surplus of the ſaid Fund unapplied, the Sum of thir-'teen thouſand ſix hundred ninety-eight Pounds one Shilling and eleven Pence, ſubject to the Diſpoſition of 'Parliament: And whereas the Office of Keeper or Clerk of the Hanaper in Chancery is a very ancient Of-'fice, held and enjoyed by Grant from his Majeſty's Royal Predeceſſors, Kings and Queens of this Realm, 'and the yearly Revenue thereof, conſiſting of ſeveral certain yearly Rents or Sums, reſerved upon Grants 'made by the Crown of the ſeveral Offices, commonly called the Seal or Green Wax Office, the Alienation 'Office, and the Sixpenny Writ Office, in Chancery (the Grant of which laſt-mentioned Office is now ex-'pired and determined) and alſo of Fees paid upon Grants, Commiſſions and other Patents paſſing under 'the Great Seal, which are uncertain and contingent, hath conſtantly been iſſued and applied in and for 'the Payment of ſeveral ancient Fees, Salaries and Allowances belonging to the Lord Chancellor, or Lord 'Keeper of the Great Seal, the Maſter of the Rolls, the Maſters in Chancery, Clerk of the Parliaments, 'and other Officers attending the Parliament and Great Seal, and of ſeveral Bills and Diſburſements always 'paid and allowed out of the Revenues of the Hanaper Office: And whereas the Office of Maſter or Keeper 'of the Rolls, is an Office of great Truſt and Conſequence to the Publick, and the Revenue belonging 'thereto is not adequate to the Trouble, Dignity and Importance of the ſaid Office: And whereas the In-'come or Revenue of the ſaid Office of the Hanaper, hath not for ſeveral Years laſt paſt been ſufficient 'to anſwer and pay the ſeveral Fees, Salaries, Allowances and Diſburſements, iſſuing and payable out of 'the ſame; and there remained due and in Arrear, at Michaelmas one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-'nine, to the ſeveral Perſons claiming and intitled to ſuch Fees, Salaries, Allowances and Diſburſements 'reſpectively, ſeveral Sums of Money, amounting together to the Sum of ten thouſand five hundred ninety 'Pounds twelve Shillings and eleven Pence; and as the Revenue of the Hanaper Office will, in all Pro-'bability, ſtill continue to be deficient, not only the preſent Debt upon the ſaid Office will be loſt, but the 'Services to which the ſame for the future are to be applied, will remain unprovided for:' Wherefore, and in order to make a Proviſion for the Payment of the ſaid Debt, and Arrears incurred upon the Hanaper Office; Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the same, That out of the said Sum of thirteen thousand six hundred ninety-eight Pounds one Shilling and eleven Pence, now remaining in the Bank of England, as the Surplus unapplied, of the Fund given and granted by the said former Acts of Parliament, for the Purposes therein mentioned, and so reserved for the Disposition of Parliament as aforesaid, there shall be issued and paid such Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole, the said Sum of ten thousand five hundred and ninety Pounds twelve Shillings and eleven Pence, herein before-mentioned, to be due and in arrear at Michaelmas one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, to the Creditors upon the Office of Keeper or Clerk of the Hanaper as aforesaid, when, and as the Court of Chancery shall order and direct, in Satisfaction of the said Debt, and Arrears to the several Persons intitled to the same respectively; and as often as the Accomptant General of the said Court shall, in pursuance of any such Order of the said Court, give a Draught upon the Bank of England, for any of the said Debts or Arrears, Certificates thereof from the said Accomptant General (which Certificates he is hereby required to make without Fee or Reward) shall be transmitted to the Keeper or Clerk of the Hanaper, together with proper Vouchers of the Payment of the said Debts and Arrears, specifying to whom such Payments shall have been made, and to what Time the same shall extend, to the end the same may be brought into the Account of the Keeper or Clerk of the Hanaper, to be by him passed before one of the Auditors of the said Revenue; and all such Certificates shall, from time to time, be filed in the said Office of Keeper or Clerk of the Hanaper, and the Vouchers to be transmitted therewith, are to be delivered over to the said Auditor.

Out of the Sum of 13,698*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.* Surplus unapplied, 10,590*l.* 12*s.* 11*d.* is to be paid to the Creditors of the Hanaper, as the Court of Chancery shall direct.

Penalty of taking Salmon in the ſaid River out of the Time limited.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall at any Time hereafter, between the fourteenth Day of September and ſecond Day of January for ever, by or with any Net, Device, Engine, Ways or Means whatſoever, take, kill, deſtroy, or wilfully hurt, any Salmon of any Kind or Size whatſoever, in the ſaid River Ribble, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall incur, and be ſubject to ſuch and the ſame Penalties, Forfeitures and Puniſhments as were by the ſaid recited Act inflicted upon Perſons taking, killing, deſtroying, or wilfully hurting Salmon in the ſaid River, betwixt the laſt Day of July and twelfth Day of November, and ſhall be proceeded againſt and convicted thereof, in the ſame Manner, as by ſuch recited Act is for that Purpoſe directed.

'XI. And whereas it frequently happens that Persons against whom Warrants are granted by the Justi-'ces of the Peace, for the several Counties within this Kingdom, escape into other Counties or Places out 'of the Jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace granting such Warrants, and thereby avoid being punished 'for the Offences wherewith they are charged:' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty, in case any Person against whom a legal Warrant shall be issued, by any Justice or Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town or Place within this Kingdom, shall escape or go into any other County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town or Place out of the Jurisdiction of the Justice or Justices granting such Warrant as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town or Place to which such Person shall have gone or escaped, to indorse such Warrant, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, and to cause the Person against whom the same shall have been issued, to be apprehended and sent to the Justice or Justices who granted such Warrant, or to some other Justice or Justices of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town or Place, from whence such Person shall have gone or escaped, to the end that he or she may be dealt with according to Law; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for the more effectual repairing and preserving the Piers and Harbour of Whitby in the County of York. PR.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the first Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for the rebuilding and repairing the Piers of the Town and Port of Whitby in the County of York, several Duties were granted and laid upon all Ships and Vessels entering within the Piers of the said Port, and upon certain Goods and Merchandizes therein particularly mentioned, landed within the Haven or Piers of the said Port of Whitby, and shipped off from Whitby aforesaid; and also a Duty of one Farthing per Chalder on all Coals loaded at Newcastle upon Tyne, or at Sunderland, Blythe, Seaton-sluice, Cullercoates, or any other Harbour, Colliery, or Place that was, or was reputed to be, a Member of the said Port of Newcastle upon Tyne, for the Term of nine Years, to commence from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and two; with such Provisions for the due collecting, accounting for, and applying of the said Duties, and other Powers, Matters and Things relating thereto, and for keeping clear the said Harbour, as in the same Act is particularly mentioned and contained: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, the said Act made in the first Year of her Reign, and all the Powers, Matters and Clauses contained therein, and all the Duties and Sums of Money thereby granted, and made payable, were continued and made payable, and to be in full Force and Virtue, until the first Day of May, which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and twenty-three: And whereas by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, (intituled, An Act for the better preserving and keeping in Repair the Piers of the Town and Port of Whitby in the County of York; and for explaining and making more effectual the several Acts passed for lengthening and repairing the Piers of Bridlington alias Burlington in the said County;) all and every the said Duties and Sums of Money granted and imposed by the said Act of the first Year of her said late Majesty, and continued by the said Act of the seventh Year of her Reign as aforesaid, (save and except the said Duty of one Farthing per Chalder) were made perpetual, and enacted to be paid to the Trustees therein named, and their Successors for ever, to the end that the Piers and Harbours of Whitby aforesaid might be preserved, kept and continued in good Repair: And whereas by another Act of Parliament made

8 Geo. 2. c. 10. ‘ and passed in the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for lengthening the West Pier of the Harbour of Whitby in the County of York; and for improving the said Harbour) reciting the said ‘ former Acts; and also reciting, that by and with the said several Duties and Sums of Money collected ‘ and received by virtue thereof, the said Piers had been rebuilt, finished and completed, and had been pre- ‘ served, kept and continued in good Repair; but that nevertheless, for some Years then past, the Entrance ‘ into the Port of Whitby had been rendered very narrow and difficult, by reason of a Bank of Sand which ‘ was then, and for some Time past had been gathering about the Head of the West Pier of the said Har- ‘ bour of Whitby, and would in Time, if not prevented, intirely stop and choak up the same; and inas- ‘ much as the said Sand-bed, and the further Increase thereof, in the Judgment and Understanding of expe- ‘ rienced Persons, might and could only be remedied and prevented by lengthening and extending the said ‘ West Pier one hundred Yards further into the Sea; therefore that the said Piers and Harbour might be ‘ improved, and made as secure for Colliers and Coasting Vessels as might be, and for lengthening and ex- ‘ tending the said West Pier, it was enacted, That from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven ‘ hundred and thirty-five, the said Duty of one Farthing per Chalder, granted by the said Act of the First ‘ Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen ANNE, and continued by the said Act of the seventh ‘ Year of her Reign (but which had ceased from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ‘ twenty-three) should be paid to the Trustees nominated and appointed in or by virtue of the said Act of ‘ the seventh Year of his said late Majesty's Reign for the Term of thirty-one Years, to commence and be ‘ computed from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-five, for the Purposes afore- ‘ said; and the said Act of the first Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, and all and every the Clauses, ‘ Provisions, Penalties, Matters and Things therein contained, touching the said Duty of one Farthing per ‘ Chalder thereby granted (save and except as to the Powers and Authorities thereby vested in the Trustees ‘ therein named, and to be named pursuant thereto, and a Clause therein contained touching the ceasing ‘ of the said Duty on raising six thousand Pounds, as therein mentioned) were revived and continued for the ‘ same Term of thirty-one Yerrs, with several other Powers and Clauses relating to the said Duty, and ‘ Work proposed to be done, and the regulating the said Harbour as by the said several Acts, Relation ‘ thereunto respectively being had, may more at large appear: And whereas pursuant to the said last men- ‘ tioned Act of the eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and by and with the several Duties ‘ and Sums of Money collected and received by virtue thereof, and of the other Acts aforesaid, the said ‘ West Pier of the said Harbour of Whitby hath been lengthened one hundred Yards, and terminated with ‘ a strong circular Head, whereon is erected a commodious Battery, with a strong Parapet, and Embrazures ‘ for five Pieces of Cannon, which protects the Entrance of the said Harbour, as also such Ships as may be ‘ obliged to take Shelter in the Road from an Enemy; but for carrying on the said Work, the Trustees no- ‘ minated and appointed in and by virtue of the said several Acts of the seventh Year of his late Majesty, ‘ and eighth Year of his present Majesty, have been necessitated to borrow at Times, several Sums of Mo- ‘ ney on the said Fund of one Farthing per Chalder, amounting to six thousand two hundred Pounds, which ‘ now remains charged thereon; and the said Trustees have employed the rest of the Duties granted as ‘ aforesaid, as they arose, in rebuilding and repairing other Parts of the said Piers, and in getting up Quar- ‘ ries at the Mouth of the said Harbour, in order to deepen the Channel; which has had so good an Effect, ‘ that it has encouraged the Inhabitants of Whitby aforesaid, and others, to build in the said Harbour much ‘ larger Ships than were formerly used: And whereas the West and East Piers have been greatly shaken ‘ with the Seas; and the Marle or soft Rock, on which they are built, is worn away in several Places, by ‘ the great Quantity of Sand scoured out of the said Harbour, which has occasioned their sinking, and the ‘ Walls thereof to bulge out; and the Communication between the Town and the West Pier is in a great ‘ Measure interrupted; and it is absolutely necessary for the Security of the said Harbour, that the said Parts ‘ of the said East and West Piers should be rebuilt, or repaired and raised; and it would be a great Improve- ‘ ment of the said Harbour, and tend very much to the Advantage and Safety of all Colliers and Coasting ‘ Vessels, if the remaining Part of the Stone Rock at the Entrance of the said Harbour was taken away, ‘ and the Way repaired and made sufficient, from the said Town of Whitby to the said West Pier, with ‘ proper Moorings for Ships along the same; but as the Expence of the said Works cannot be provided for ‘ without some additional Duty, the said perpetual Fund granted by the said Act of the seventh Year of his ‘ late Majesty's Reign, producing yearly only one hundred and forty Pounds, or thereabouts; and the said ‘ Duty of one Farthing per Chalder will raise little, if any thing, more than will pay the Principal Monies ‘ borrowed thereon, and the Interest thereof now due, and which may incur during the Remainder of the ‘ said Term of thirty-one Years:' To the End therefore that the said West and East Piers may be rebuilt or repaired, and raised where needful, and the remaining Part of the Stone Rock at the Entrance of the said Harbour may be taken away, and the Way from the West Pier to the said Town of Whitby may be repaired and made sufficient, and proper Moorings for Ships may be placed thereon, as shall be judged expedient, and the said Harbour may be further improved; May it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

“ An Additional Duty of one Farthing a Chalder laid on Coals for 31 Years. Powers given by the recited “ Act, to be exercised by the Trustees with regard to the present Duty. Trustees may borrow Money on “ the Credit of the Duties; and contract for the Work and Materials; and for the Purchase of Houses “ and Grounds, for making the Way from the West Pier to the Town more convenient. Owners refusing “ to treat, Justices to impanel a Jury, who are to assess the Recompence. Upon Payment of the Money, “ the Lands, &c. to vest in the Trustees. The West and East Piers, &c. vested in the Trustees. Person “ to be appointed, who is to direct the Mooring, &c. of Ships. Vessels belonging to Great Yarmouth ex- “ empted from Duties.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Annuitants of the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the City of London, after reciting that by Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date respectively the third and fourth Days of October one thousand six hundred and ninety-nine, and inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, the Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the City of London, did grant and release divers Messuages and Tenements, Tosts, Gardens, Ground and Hereditaments, of and belonging to the said Wardens and Commonalty, situate and being in the City of London, and in the County of Middlesex, therein particularly mentioned and described; together with one full Moiety of all that great Fabrick and Place called the Royal Exchange, London, and other Tenements in, under, upon or near the same, therein particularly mentioned and described; and also all that the Manor of Mercers, with the Rights, Members and Appurtenances thereof, lying and being in the County of Londonderry in Ireland, and divers other Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in Ireland, in the same Indentures more particularly mentioned and described, unto Sir William Hedges, and several other Persons, as Trustees, their Heirs and Assigns, upon Trust, amongst other Things, to pay and satisfy several charitable Gifts; and also such Annuities to be granted by the said Wardens and Commonalty, during the Lives of the Wives of Clergymen, or of other Persons, surviving their Husbands, in such manner as in the said Act is mentioned; and also reciting that by Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date the first and second Days of June one thousand seven hundred and forty-one, Richard Cheswell the elder, Sir Thomas Webster, David Papillon and Clement Tookie, therein named, being then the only surviving Trustees in certain Indentures of Lease and Release, bearing Date the first and second Days of June one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, in the said Act mentioned and referred to, did, by the Direction and Appointment of the said Wardens and Commonalty, grant and convey the said several Trust Estates to the Use of themselves, and other Trustees therein named, their Heirs and Assigns, upon certain Trusts, and for divers Purposes mentioned in the said Act, or in certain Deeds therein referred to; and also reciting that the Trustees, in whom the legal Interest of the said Estates comprized in the said Indentures of the third and fourth of October one thousand six hundred and ninety-nine, and the said Indentures of the first and second of June one thousand seven hundred and forty-one, was then vested, might refuse to act; and that it might be for the Benefit of the said Annuitants, that building and repairing Leases should be lett of the several Estates that are within the City of London, and County of Middlesex, and also that such of the said Estates as are in the Kingdom of Ireland, should be lett for a Term of Years, or for Lives and a Term of Years; it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for the said Wardens and Commonalty, and their Successors, from Time to Time, by any Deed or Deeds, indented under the Common Seal of the said Wardens and Commonalty to demise and lease all or any Part of the said Estates (except as therein after is excepted) for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding twenty-one Years absolute, in Possession, and not in Reversion, reserving the most improved Rent that could be had for the same, without taking any Fine or other Thing, by way of Income, for granting any Lease or Leases thereof, and so as no such Lease or Leases should be made dispunishable of Waste, and so as the respective Lessees should seal and execute Counterparts of such Lease or Leases respectively; in which said Act is contained a Proviso, that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Wardens and Commonalty, and their Successors, to demise and lease the Manor of Mercers, Part of the said Estates in the Kingdom of Ireland, with the Rights, Members and Appurtenances, or any Part or Parts thereof, for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding sixty-one Years in Possession, or for sixty-one Years in Possession, and for the Lives of any three Persons, and the Life of the longer Liver of them; and that they should and might take such Fine or Fines, or other Consideration, for the granting such Lease or Leases, and reserve such yearly or other Rent or Rents thereon, as could be reasonably obtained, so as the reserved Rent upon any such Lease be not less than the Rent then reserved to the said Wardens and Commonalty; and also that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Wardens and Commonalty to demise and lease the several Messuages and Tenements, Part of the said Estates, situate, lying, standing and being, in or near Long Acre in the County of Middlesex; and all other the Messuages or Tenements belonging to the said Estates, which they should deem necessary to lett upon building or repairing Leases, according to the common or usual Method of letting such Leases;

'Leaſes; videlicet, the building Leaſes for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding ſixty-one Years, 'and the repairing Leaſes for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding forty-one Years, to com-'mence from the Date or Dates of any ſuch Leaſes; and ſhould and might take ſuch Fine or Fines, or 'other Conſideration, and ſuch yearly and other Rent or Rents, for granting ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, as 'they ſhould think fit; in which building Leaſe or Leaſes, Power ſhould be given to the reſpective Leſ-'ſees, or their Agents, to pull down and demoliſh the old Buildings, and to diſpoſe of the Materials, as 'they ſhould reſpectively think fit; and alſo a Proviſo, that no Leaſe or Leaſes of any Part of the ſaid 'Eſtates (except the Eſtates in Ireland and Long Acre) ſhould be granted till within the Space of three 'Years next before the Expiration of ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes as were then in being: And whereas the Tru-'ſtees named and appointed by the ſaid Deeds of the firſt and ſecond Days of June one thouſand ſeven 'hundred and forty-one, decline acting in the ſaid Truſt: And whereas the Powers given to the ſaid 'Wardens and Commonalty by the ſaid recited Act, are not ſufficient to enable the ſaid Wardens and 'Commonalty to grant ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes of their Eſtate in Ireland, as was meant and intended by the 'ſaid Act they ſhould have Power to grant, inaſmuch as by the ſaid Act, the Leaſes they are thereby 'enabled to grant, are to be for any Term or Number of Years not exceeding ſixty-one Years in Poſſeſ-'ſion, or for ſixty-one Years in Poſſeſſion and for the Lives of any three Perſons, and the Life of the 'longer Liver of them: And whereas the ſaid Iriſh Eſtate is now lett on Leaſe or Leaſes which are not yet 'expired; and the Power given by the ſaid Act to grant Leaſes for ſixty-one Years, being reſtrained and 'limited to be for ſixty-one Years in Poſſeſſion; and the Power of granting Leaſes for three Lives, being a 'Power to grant a Freehold, the ſame cannot by the Rules of Law be granted to commence in futuro; ſo 'that the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty, as the Act now ſtands, cannot legally grant any Leaſe of the 'ſaid Iriſh Eſtate, either for ſixty-one Years, or for three Lives and ſixty-one Years, until the Leaſe or 'Leaſes thereof now in being are expired or ſurrendered, without the Aid of an Act of Parliament for ex-'plaining and amending the ſaid recited Act, with reſpect to the Power of granting Leaſes of the ſaid 'Eſtate: And whereas it will be greatly for the Advantage of the Annuitants of the ſaid Wardens and 'Commonalty, that the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty ſhould be now enabled, and have Power, to grant 'Leaſes of their ſaid Iriſh Eſtate to commence at the Expiration of the Leaſes thereof now ſubſiſting, re-'ſerving the preſent Rent, and taking the beſt Fine that can be got for the ſame, according to the true In-'tent and Meaning of the ſaid recited Act;' May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, at the humble Requeſt of your loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Wardens and Commonalty of the Myſtery of Mercers of the City of London, that it may be enacted, &c.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act for Regulating the Commencement of the Year; and for Correcting the Calendar now in Use.

" WHEREAS the legal Supputation of the Year of our Lord in that Part of Great Britain called England, according to which the Year beginneth on the twenty-fifth Day of March, hath been found by Experience to be attended with divers Inconveniencies, not only as it differs from the Usage of neighbouring Nations, but also from the legal Method of Computation in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and from the common Usage throughout the whole Kingdom, and thereby frequent Mistakes are occasioned in the Dates of Deeds, and other Writings, and Disputes arise therefrom: And whereas the Calendar now in Use throughout all his Majesty's British Dominions, commonly called The Julian Calendar, hath been discovered to be erroneous, by means whereof the Vernal or Spring Equinox, which at the Time of the General Council of Nice in the Year of our Lord three hundred and and twenty-five, happened on or about the twenty-first Day of March, now happens on the ninth or tenth Day of the same Month; and the said Error is still increasing, and if not remedied, would, in Process of Time, occasion the several Equinoxes and Solstices to fall at very different Times in the Civil Year from what they formerly did, which might tend to mislead Persons ignorant of the said Alteration: And whereas a Method of correcting the Calendar in such manner, as that the Equinoxes and Solstices may for the future fall nearly on the same nominal Days, on which the same happened at the Time of the said General Council, hath been received and established, and is now generally practised by almost all other Nations of Europe: And whereas it will be of general Convenience to Merchants, and other Persons corresponding with other Nations and Countries, and tend to prevent Mistakes and Disputes in or concerning the Dates of Letters, and Accounts, if the like Correction be received and established in his Majesty's Dominions:' May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in and throughout all his Majesty's Dominions and Countries in Europe, Asia, Africa and America, belonging or subject to the Crown of Great Britain, the said Supputation, according to which the Year of our Lord beginneth on the twenty-fifth Day of March, shall not be made use of from and after the last Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one; and that the first Day of January next following the said last Day of December shall be reckoned, taken, deemed and accounted to be the first Day of the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two; and the first Day of January, which shall happen next after the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, shall be be reckoned, taken, deemed and accounted to be the first Day of the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three; and so on, from Time to Time, the first Day of January in every Year, which shall happen in Time to come, shall be reckoned, taken, deemed and accounted to be the first Day of the Year; and that each new Year shall accordingly commence, and begin to be reckoned, from the first Day of every such Month of January next preceding the twenty-fifth Day of March, on which such Year would, according to the present Supputation, have begun or commenced: And that from and after the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, the several Days of each Month shall go on, and be reckoned and numbered in the same Order; and the Feast of Easter, and other moveable Feasts thereon depending, shall be ascertained according to the same Method, as they now are, until the second Day of September in the said Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two inclusive; and that the natural Day next immediately following the said second Day of September, shall be called, reckoned and accounted to be the fourteenth Day of September, omitting for that Time only the eleven intermediate nominal Days of the common Calendar; and that the several natural Days, which shall follow and succeed next after the said fourteenth Day of September, shall be respectively called, reckoned and numbered forwards in numerical Order from the said fourteenth Day of September, according to the Order and Succession of Days now used in the present Calendar; and that all Acts, Deeds, Writings, Notes and other Instruments of what Nature or Kind soever, whether Ecclesiastical or Civil, Publick or Private, which shall be made, executed or signed, upon or after the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, shall bear Date according to the said new Method of Supputation, and that the two fixed Terms of St. Hilary and St. Michael, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the Courts of Great Sessions in the Counties Palatine, and in Wales, and also the Courts of General Quarter Sessions and General Sessions of the Peace, and all other Courts of what Nature or Kind soever, whether Civil, Criminal or Ecclesiastical, and all Meetings and Assemblies of any Bodies Politick or Corporate, either for the Election of any Officers or Members thereof, or for any such Officers entering upon the Execution of their respective Offices, or for any other Purpose whatsoever, which by any Law, Statute, Charter, Custom or Usage within this Kingdom, or within any other the Dominions or Countries subject or belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, are to be holden and kept on any fixed or certain Day of any Month, or on any Day depending upon the Beginning, or any certain Day of any Month (except such Courts as are usually holden or kept with any Fairs or Marts) shall, from Time to Time, from and after the said second Day of September, be holden and kept upon or according to the same respective nominal Days and Times, whereon or according to which the same are now to be holden, but which shall be computed according to the said new Method of numbering and reckoning the Days of the Calendar as aforesaid; that is to say, eleven Days sooner than the respective Days whereon the same are now holden and kept; any Law, Statute, Charter, Custom or Usage, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The Days to be numbered as now until 2 Sept. 1752; and the Day following to be accounted 14 Sept. omitting 11 Days.

Hilary and Michaelmas Terms, and all Courts, to be held on the same nominal Days.

Courts held with Fairs or Marts excepted.

II. And for the continuing and preserving the Calendar or Method of Reckoning, and computing the Days of the Year in the same regular Course, as near as may be, in all Times coming; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Years of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred, one thousand nine hundred, two thousand one hundred, two thousand two hundred, two thousand three hundred, or any other hundredth Years of our Lord, which shall happen in Time to come, except only every fourth hundredth Year of our Lord, whereof the Year of our Lord two thousand shall be the first, shall not be esteemed or taken to be Bissextile or Leap Years, but shall be taken to be common Years, consisting of three hundred and sixty-five Days, and no more; and that the Years of our Lord two thousand, two thousand four hundred, two thousand eight hundred, and every other fourth hundred Year of our Lord, from the said Year of our Lord two thousand inclusive, and also all other Years of our Lord, which by the present Supputation are esteemed to be Bissextile or Leap Years, shall for the future, and in all Times to come, be esteemed and taken to be Bissextile or Leap Years, consisting of three hundred and sixty-six Days, in the same Sort and Manner as is now used with respect to every fourth Year of our Lord.

Hundredth Years, except every fourth hundred, to be common Years of 365 Days.

Years Bissextile of 366 Days.

'III. And whereas according to the Rule prefixed to the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of 'England, Easter-day is always the first Sunday after the first Full Moon which happens next after the one 'and twentieth Day of March, and if the Full Moon happens upon a Sunday, Easter-day is the Sunday 'after; which Rule was made in Conformity to the Decree of the said General Council of Nice, for the 'Celebration of the said Feast of Easter: And whereas the Method of computing the Full Moons now 'used in the Church of England, and according to which the Table to find Easter for ever, prefixed to 'the said Book of Common Prayer, is formed, is by Process of Time become considerably erroneous: 'And whereas a Calendar, and also certain Tables and Rules for the fixing the true Time of the Cele'bration of the said Feast of Easter, and the finding the Times of the Full Moons on which the same de'pendeth, so as the same shall agree as nearly as may be with the Decree of the said General Council, and 'also with the Practice of foreign Countries, have been prepared, and are hereunto annexed:' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Feast of Easter, or any of the moveable Feasts thereon depending, shall, from and after the said second Day of September, be no longer kept or observed in that Part of Great Britain called England, or in any other the Dominions or Countries subject or belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, according to the said Method of Supputation now used, or the said Table prefixed to the said Book of Common Prayer; and that the said Table, and also the Column of Golden Numbers, as they are now prefixed to the respective Days of the Month in the said Calendar, shall be left out in all future Editions of the said Book of Common Prayer; and that the said

Easter, and the other moveable Feasts, to be observed according to the new Calendar, Tables and Rules.

new Calendar, Tables and Rules, hereunto annexed, shall be prefixed to all such future Editions of the said Book, in the Room and Stead thereof; and that from and after the said second Day of September, all and every the fixed Feast-days, Holy-days and Fast-days, which are now kept and observed by the Church of England, and also the several solemn Days of Thanksgiving, and of Fasting and Humiliation, which by virtue of any Act of Parliament now in being, are, from Time to Time, to be kept and observed, shall be kept and observed on the respective Days marked for the Celebration of the same in the said new Calendar; that is to say, On the same respective nominal Days on which the same are now kept and observed; but which according to the Alteration by this Act intended to be made as aforesaid, will happen eleven Days sooner than the same now do; and that the said Feast of Easter, and all other moveable Feasts thereon depending, shall, from Time to Time, be observed and celebrated according to the said new Calendar, Tables and Rules hereunto annexed, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and in all the Dominions and Countries aforesaid, wherein the Liturgy of the Church of England now is, or hereafter shall be used; and that the two moveable Terms of Easter and Trinity, and all Courts of what Nature or Kind soever, and all Meetings and Assemblies of any Bodies Politick or Corporate, and all Markets, Fairs and Marts, and Courts thereunto belonging, which by any Law, Statute, Charter, Custom or Usage are appointed, used or accustomed to be holden and kept at any moveable Time or Times depending upon the Time of Easter, or any other such moveable Feast as aforesaid, shall, from Time to Time, from and after the said second Day of September, be holden and kept on such Days and Times whereon the same shall respectively happen or fall, according to the happening or falling of the said Feast of Easter, or such other moveable Feasts as aforesaid, to be computed according to the said new Calendar, Tables and Rules.

Feasts and Fasts, &c. to be according to the new Calendar.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Meetings of the Court of Session, and Terms fixed for the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, the April Meeting of the Governor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the great Level of the Fens, and the holding and keeping of all Markets, Fairs and Marts, whether for the Sale of Goods or Cattle, or for the hiring of Servants, or for any other Purpose, which are either fixed to certain nominal Days of the Month, or depending upon the Beginning, or any certain Day of any Month, and all Courts incident or belonging to, or usually holden or kept with any such Fairs or Marts, fixed to such certain Times as aforesaid, shall not, from and after the said second Day of September, be continued upon, or according to the nominal Days of the Month, or the Time of the Beginning of any Month, to be computed according to the said new Calendar, but that from and after the said second Day of September, the said Courts of Session and Exchequer, the said April Meeting, and all such Markets, Fairs and Marts as aforesaid, and all Courts incident or belonging thereto, shall be holden and kept upon, or according to the same natural Days, upon or according to which the same should have been so kept or holden, in case this Act had not been made; that is to say, eleven Days later than the same would have happened, according to the nominal Days of the said new Supputation of Time, by which the Commencement of each Month, and the nominal Days thereof, are anticipated or brought forward, by the Space of eleven Days; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Courts of Session and Exchequer in Scotland, and Markets, Fairs and Marts to be held upon the same natural Days,

'V. And whereas, according to divers Customs, Prescriptions and Usages, in certain Places within 'this Kingdom, certain Lands and Grounds are, on particular nominal Days and Times in the Year, to 'be opened for Common of Pasture, and other Purposes; and at other Times, the Owners and Occu- 'piers of such Lands and Grounds have a Right to inclose or shut up the same, for their own private 'Use; and there is, in many other Instances, a temporary and distinct Property and Right vested in dif- 'ferent Persons, in and to many such Lands and Grounds, according to certain nominal Days and Times 'in the Year: And whereas the anticipating or bringing forward the said nominal Days and Times, by 'the Space of eleven Days, according to the said new Method of Supputation, might be attended with 'many Inconveniencies;' Be it therefore further declared, provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to accelerate or anticipate the Days or Times for the opening, inclosing or shutting up any such Lands or Grounds as aforesaid, or the Days or Times on which any such temporary or distinct Property or Right in or to any such Lands or Grounds as aforesaid is to commence; but that all such Lands and Grounds as aforesaid shall from and after the said second Day of September be, from Time to Time, respectively opened, inclosed or shut up, and such temporary and distinct Property and Right in and to such Lands and Grounds as aforesaid, shall commence and begin upon the same natural Days and Times on which the same should have been so respectively opened, inclosed or shut up, or would have commenced or begun, in case this Act had not been made; that is to say, eleven Days later than the same would have happened, according to the said new Account and Supputation of Time, so to begin on the said fourteenth Day of September as aforesaid.

The Times for opening and inclosing of Commons, not altered.

THIS Table contains so much of the Calendar as is necessary for the determining of Easter; to find which, look for the Golden Number of the Year in the first Column of the Table, against which stands the Day of the Paschal Full Moon; then look in the third Column for the Sunday Letter, next after the Day of the Full Moon; and the Day of the Month standing against that Sunday Letter is Easter-day. If the Full Moon happens upon a Sunday, then (according to the first Rule) the next Sunday after is Easter-day.

To find the Golden Number, or Prime, add one to the Year of our Lord, and then divide by 19; the Remainder, if any, is the Golden Number; but if nothing remaineth, then 19 is the Golden Number.

To find the Dominical or Sunday Letter, according to the Calendar, until the Year 1799 inclusive, add to the Year of our Lord its fourth Part, omitting Fractions, and also the Number 1: Divide the Sum by 7; and if there is no Remainder, then A is the Sunday Letter: But if any Number remaineth, then the Letter standing against that Number in the small annexed Table, is the Sunday Letter.

For the next Century, that is, from the Year 1800 till the Year 1899 inclusive, add to the current Year only its fourth Part, and then divide by 7, and proceed as in the last Rule.

Note, That in all Bissextile or Leap-Years, the Letter found, as above, will be the Sunday Letter from the intercalated Day exclusive, to the End of the Year.

Another TABLE to find EASTER till the Year 1899 inclusive.

TO make use of the preceding Table, find the Sunday Letter for the Year in the uppermost Line, and the Golden Number or Prime, in the Column of Golden Numbers; and against the Prime, in the same Line under the Sunday Letter, you have the Day of the Month on which Easter falleth that Year. But Note, That the Day of the Month is set on the Left Hand, or just with the Figure, and followeth not, as in other Tables, by Descent, but Collateral.

Note, That in a Bissextile or Leap-Year, the Number of Sundays after Epiphany will be the same, as if Easter-day had fallen one Day later than it really does. And for the same Reason one Day must in every Leap Year be added to the Day of the Month given by the Table for Septuagesima Sunday: And the like must be done for the first Day of Lent (commonly called Ash-wednesday) unless the Table gives some Day in the Month of March for it; for in that Case the Day given by the Table is the right Day.

THE Golden Numbers in the foregoing Calendar will point out the Days of the Paschal Full Moons, till the Year of our Lord 1900; at which Time, in order that the Ecclesiastical Full Moons may fall nearly on the same Days with the real Full Moons, the Golden Numbers must be removed to different Days of the Calendar, as is done in the annexed Table, which contains so much of the Calendar then to be used, as is necessary for finding the Paschal Full Moons, and the Feast of Easter, from the Year 1900 to the Year 2199 inclusive. This Table is to be made use of, in all respects, as the first Table before inserted, for finding Easter till the Year 1899.

TO find the Month and Days of the Month, to which the Golden Numbers ought to be prefixed in the Calendar in any given Year of our Lord, conſiſting of entire hundred Years, and in all the intermediate Years, betwixt that and the next hundredth Year following, look in the ſecond Column of Table II. for the given Year, conſiſting of entire Hundreds, and Note the Number or Cypher which ſtands againſt it in the third Column; then, in Table III. look for the ſame Number in the Column under any given Golden Number, which when you have found, guide your Eye ſide-ways to the Left Hand, and in the firſt Column you will find the Month and Day, to which that Golden Number ought to be prefixed in the Calendar during that Period of one hundred Years.

The Letter B prefixed to certain hundredth Years in Table II. denotes thoſe Years which are ſtill to be accounted Biſſextile or Leap Years in the new Calendar; whereas all the other hundredth Years are to be accounted only common Years.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to provide for the Administration of the Government, in case the Crown should descend to any of the Children of his late Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, being under the Age of eighteen Years; and for the Care and Guardianship of their Persons.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS your Majesty having it entirely at Heart to secure the future Welfare and Happiness of your People, was graciously pleased to communicate to your Parliament, That you had maturely considered, that nothing can conduce so much (under the Protection of the Divine Providence) to the Preservation of the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family, and the Support of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of these Kingdoms (which have been always most dear to your Majesty) as the making proper Provisions for the Care and Tuition of the Person of your Successor to the Crown, and for the regular Administration of the Government, in case such Successor should be of tender Years, by Means whereof, the Safety and Princely Education of such Successor may be secured, the publick Peace and good Order maintained, and the Strength and Glory of the Crown of Great Britain suffer no Diminution; for which Reasons your Majesty, out of your paternal Affection and Tenderness for your Royal Family, and for all your faithful Subjects, did earnestly recommend it to both your Houses of Parliament to take this weighty Affair into their most serious Deliberation; and was pleased to propose to their Consideration, That when the Imperial Crown of these Realms should descend to any of the Issue of your Son the late Prince of Wales being under the Age of eighteen Years, the Princess Dowager of Wales their Mother (of whose great Virtues and eminent Qualities we are truly sensible) might be Guardian of the Person of such Successor, and Regent of these Kingdoms, until they should attain such Age, with such Powers and Limitations as should appear necessary and expedient for these important Purposes: And whereas, in Return for this paternal Goodness, with the most unfeigned Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, and with the justest Sense of that constant Protection which your Majesty has always extended to our religious and civil Rights, and of the many Blessings which these Kingdoms have enjoyed, during your auspicious and glorious Reign (for the long Continuance whereof our daily and most fervent Prayers are offered up to Heaven) we have taken this weighty Affair into our serious Consideration, and being thoroughly convinced of the Wisdom and Expediency of what your Majesty has thought fit to recommend on this important Occasion, are firmly and zealously determined to contribute every Thing in our Power to the Preservation of the Protestant Succession, as settled by Law in your Royal Family, the numerous hopeful Branches whereof, formed by your Instruction, and led by your Example, we look upon as so many Pledges of the Security of our excellent Constitution to future Generations:' We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whensoever, and as often as the Imperial Crown of this Realm shall descend to his Royal Highness George William Frederick Prince of Wales, the eldest Son of his Royal Highness Frederick late Prince of Wales, or to any other of the Children of his said late Royal Highness, if at the respective Times of such Descent, his said Royal Highness George William Frederick Prince of Wales, or such other of the said Children succeeding to the Crown as aforesaid, shall be under the Age of eighteen Years, her Royal Highness Augusta Princess Dowager of Wales shall be Guardian, and have the Care, Tuition and Education of the Person of his said Royal Highness George William Frederick Prince of Wales, or such other Successor as aforesaid, until their respective Ages of eighteen Years, and shall, till such Ages, have the Disposition, Ordering and Management of all Matters and Things relating thereto; and that her said Royal Highness shall, during such Minorities, and no longer, have full Power and Authority, in the Name of his said Royal Highness George William Frederick Prince of Wales, or such other Successor, and in his or her Stead, and under the Stile and Title of Regent of the Kingdom, to exercise and administer, according to the Laws and Constitution thereof, the Regal Power and Government of this Realm, and all the Dominions, Countries and Territories belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, and shall do and execute all Prerogatives, Authorities, Acts of Government and Administration of Government, which belong to the King or Queen of this Realm to do and execute, according to Law; but in such Manner and subject to such Conditions, Restrictions, Limitations and Regulations, as are herein after for that Purpose specified and mentioned.

'XVIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighth and ninth Years of the 'Reign of his Majesty King William the Third, (intituled, An Act for repealing a Clause in a former Act 'relating to Party Guiles, and for the better preventing Frauds and Abuses of Brewers, and others charge-'able with the Duties of Excise;) it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That no common Distiller or 'Maker of Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale or Exportation, should at any Time after the 'tenth Day of April one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, erect or set up any Tun, Cask, Wash-'batch, Copper, Still or other Vessel for the brewing, making or keeping any Worts, Wash, Low Wines, 'Spirits or Strong Waters, nor alter or enlarge any Tun, Cask, Washbatch, Copper, Still or other 'Vessel already erected or set up, nor should have or keep any private or concealed Tun, Cask, Wash-'batch, Copper, Still or other Vessel, nor any private or concealed Warehouse, Storehouse, Cellar or 'other Place for the brewing, making, laying or keeping any Worts, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or 'Strong Waters, without first giving Notice thereof at the next Office of Excise, within the Limits or 'Jurisdiction whereof he or they did or should inhabit; upon pain of forfeiting for every Tun, Cask, 'Washbatch, Copper, Still, Warehouse, Storehouse, Cellar or other Place, so erected or set up, altered 'or enlarged, kept private or concealed, the Sum of twenty Pounds; and that all and every Person or 'Persons in whose Occupation any House, Out-house or other Place whatsoever, was or should be, 'where any such private or concealed Tun, Cask, Washbatch, Copper, Still, Warehouse, Storehouse 'or Cellar should be discovered or found, should also forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds: And 'whereas the Number of Casks and other Vessels used by Distillers being very great, and the Officers not 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 19.

'being impowered to mark the same, so as to be enabled to distinguish the entered Vessels from those that 'are not entered, it is impossible for the Gauger to prove the particular Vessel unentered, and consequently 'to convict the Offender, agreeable to the Intent and Meaning of the aforesaid Act: And whereas Di- 'stillers at present are not confined to keep their After-runnings or Feints from the second Extraction in 'any particular Vessels, which makes it impossible for the Gauger to keep an exact Stock of the said After- 'runnings or Feints. And whereas some Distillers taking the Opportunity of the Officers Absence, do 'frequently charge their Stills, either in the Whole or in Part, with Wash privately brought in, and 'when the Officers find the Still so charged, the Distillers alledge, by Way of Excuse, that such Stills 'are charged with After-runnings or Feints, which the Officers are not able to disprove, by reason of 'their not having an exact Account of the said After-runnings or Feints; in which Cases the Revenue is 'greatly defrauded by the Distillers obtaining Relief of the Duty wherewith they are charged, upon their 'Complaints of an Overcharge:' Therefore to remedy such Defects, and the better to prevent such Distiller to make Entry of all Vessels for Distillation, &c.

Frauds; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, every Distiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation, shall within ten Days after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, and all Persons who shall, after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, become Distillers or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation, shall ten Days before he, she or they distil or make any Spirituous Liquors, make a true and particular Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise, within the Limits whereof his, her or their Work-house, Stillhouse, Storehouse, Warehouse or other Place used for distilling or keeping Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, is or shall be situate, of all and every Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask or other Vessel which he, she or they shall make use of for the brewing, distilling, working, making, laying or keeping any Worts, Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters, and also of the Casks or Vessels which every such Distiller or Maker of Vessels for brewing or keeping the After-runnings or Feints of the second Extraction, not to exceed two; Penalty.

Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation as aforesaid, shall make use of, for the brewing, holding or keeping of the After-runnings or Feints from the second Extraction, which shall from Time to Time be drawn from every such Still, (which said last-mentioned Casks or Vessels shall not at any one Time exceed two in Number, at any such Distillers or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation) and also of all such new Utensils as such Distillers or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation shall make use of for the Purposes aforesaid; on pain that every such Distiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation, shall forfeit and lose for every such Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask or other Vessel herein before mentioned, which shall be made use of and not entered as aforesaid, the Distiller to shew the Gauger every Still and Vessel.

Sum of fifty Pounds; and every such Distiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation as aforesaid, is hereby required to shew to the Gauger or Officer of Excise, who surveys his, her or their Workhouse, Stillhouse, Storehouse, Warehouse or other Place used for distilling or keeping Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, every such Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask or other Vessel so entered, and he the said Officer is hereby required to mark the same with a particular, distinct and durable Mark; and every Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask, and any Vessel which shall at any Time or Times be used by any such Distiller or Maker of Low Wines and Spirits for Sale or Exportation, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, without being so shewn or marked, shall be deemed a Vessel or Utensil of which no Entry has been made; and if any Person or Persons whatsoever, shall at any Time or Times hereafter, after such Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask or other Vessel, shall have been so marked by such Officer as aforesaid, rub out or deface any such Mark so fixed upon any such Still, Copper, Tun, Washbatch, Cask or other Vessel by such Officer as aforesaid, he, she or they so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

'XX. And whereas Distillers and Makers of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation, very 'frequently take in Wash, when privately prepared, and charge their Stills in the Officers Absence, and 'by these Means run great Quantities of Wash, Low Wines and Spirits;' The better to prevent such Frauds for the future, be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand

XXI. And

XXI. And for the Encouragement of the Exportation of Spirits, drawn or made in Great Britain, from the Materials aforesaid, or any of them; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, there shall be a Drawback or Allowance of the several and respective Duties charged by this Act, on such Spirits so drawn or made in Great Britain, which shall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas; and upon Oath being made before any two or more of the Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace for the County or Place from whence any such Spirits are intended to be exported, that the Duties of the same are duly entered and paid, and that the same are exported for Merchandize to be spent beyond the Seas; and upon producing a Certificate under the Hands of the Officers of Excise for the Port or Place where such Spirits were shipped, of the Quantities so shipped, and that the same were shipped in the Presence of such Officers; the Distiller or Distillers, or other Person or Persons exporting the same, shall be allowed or paid back by the Commissioners of Excise, or their Collector, for the Port or Place where such Spirits shall be shipped off, the several Duties charged thereupon by this Act accordingly. Drawback of the Duties allowed on Exportation of Spirits made in Great Britain.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, no Person or Persons whatsoever, being a common Brewer of Ale or Beer, or Innkeeper, Distiller or other Seller of or Dealer in any Kind of Spirituous Liquors, or who is or are or shall be interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, shall, during such Time as he or they shall be such common Brewer, Innkeeper, Distiller or other Seller of or Dealer in Spirituous Liquors, or interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, be capable or have any Power to act, or shall be directly or indirectly concerned in acting as a Justice of the Peace, in any Matter or Thing whatsoever, which shall any ways concern the Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament, in any wise relating to Distillers or Makers of Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale, or to the Duty or Duties imposed upon Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters, or any other Kinds of Spirituous Liquors whatsoever, or to the granting Licences to the Retailers of Spirituous Liquors. Brewers, Innkeepers, Distillers or Dealers in Spirits, &c. not to act as Justices relating to the Distillery.

'XXIII. And whereas it has been doubted whether the several Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, 'Methods, Penalties, Punishments and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things which were provided, 'settled, directed, established or imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament made since the sixth Year of 'his present Majesty's Reign, relating to the selling Spirituous Liquors without Licence, might be law- 'fully exercised, imposed, inflicted and recovered against any Person for retailing Spirituous Liquors, in 'less Quantity than two Gallons, in regard to the Quantity of Spirituous Liquors which might be lawfully 'sold without Licence, without subjecting the Seller thereof to be deemed a Retailer of Spirituous Li- 'quors, is different in the said Act of the sixteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, from that in 16 Geo. 2. c. 8. 'the seventeenth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sur- 17 Geo. 2. c. 17. 'XXIV. And whereas by a Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth Year of his present 9 Geo. 2. c. 23. 'Majesty, (intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon the Retailers of Spirituous Liquors, and for licensing 'the Retailers thereof) it is enacted, That nothing in the same Act contained should extend to enable 'any Person to sell any Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters by Retail, unless such Person be first li- 'censed by two or more Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where such Person should sell the 'said Liquors, under the Hands and Seals of the said Justices; for which Licence or Licences the Sum 'of two Shillings and six Pence, and no more, should be paid to the Clerks of such Justices, and 'no Fee or Sum of Money, or other Reward whatsoever, to the Clerk or Clerks of the Peace for en- 'tering the same, or on any other Account, on Pain of forfeiting five Pounds, in case any of the said 'Justices Clerks, or any Clerk of the Peace, should ask or receive any Fee, other than as above, on 'account of such Licences: And whereas by another Clause in an Act of Parliament passed in the 16 Geo. 2. c. 8. 'sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, (intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties on 'Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences for retailing the same; and for laying other Duties on Spirituous Li- 'quors, and on Licences to retail the said Liquors) the said first-recited Act is in part repealed; and some 'Doubts having arisen, whether the said first-recited Clause, limiting the Fees for Licences to two Shil- 'lings and six Pence each, be repealed or not, the Clerks of Justices of the Peace, in many Parts of this 'Kingdom, have taken larger Fees for such Licences, contrary to the Intention of the said Act: And

'whereas

'whereas no particular Method is prescribed in the same Act for the Recovery of the before-mentioned 'Penalty of five Pounds:' Now, to put an end to all Doubts concerning the said first-recited Clause, and the Method of suing for and recovering the said Penalty therein contained, Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said recited Clause in the aforesaid Act of the ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, restraining or intending to restrain the Clerks of Justices of the Peace for asking or receiving more than two Shillings and six Pence for each Licence therein mentioned, is now and shall, from henceforth, be and remain in full Force.

The Clause in 9 Geo. 2. restraining the Fees of Justices Clerks for Licences, to be in Force.

Penalties how to be recovered.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by the said first-recited Clause imposed, shall or may be sued for, levied and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes, or at the General or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace of the County or Place where such Offence shall be committed, for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall sue or prosecute for the same; in which Suits no Essoin, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge with any of the Duties directed to be paid, levied or received as aforesaid, any Spirits made or distilled from Malt, and retailed and consumed within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which Spirits are commonly called and known by the Name of Aqua Vitæ, in that Part of the Kingdom, or to subject the Makers, Sellers and Retailers thereof, within that Part of the Kingdom, to take such Licences as are herein before directed.

12 Car. 2. c. 24.

'XXVII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of 'his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Li- 'veries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance; and for settling a Revenue upon his 'Majesty in lieu thereof) it is amongst other Things enacted, That all Parts of the Cities of London and 'Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, and the several Suburbs thereof, and Parishes within the 'Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall be under the immediate Care, Inspection and Management of the Head 'Office of Excise in London: And whereas since the passing of the said Act, the Parish of Saint Mary le 'Bon in the County of Middlesex, is greatly increased in Buildings and Inhabitants, and is contiguous to 'the Parishes within the said Bills of Mortality;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Parish of Saint Mary le Bon shall, from and after the said first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be under the immediate Care, Inspection and Management of the said Head Office of Excise; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

sent Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, it shall and may be lawful for all Trustees or Commissioners appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, for the Repair of any Highway or Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, in their respective Districts, or any five of them, or any Person or Persons impowered by them, or any five of them, to demand, receive and take, and they are hereby required to demand, receive and take, at all the Gates and Bars they have erected, or shall erect, for the receiving and collecting any Toll or Duty, the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Waggon or other Carriage drawn by six Horses, before such Waggon or other Carriage shall be permitted to pass through any such Toll-gate or Toll-bar, over and above the Tolls or Duties already granted, or hereafter to be granted; which said additional Toll or Duty hereby granted and made payable, shall and may be levied and recovered upon any Person who shall after Demand made thereof refuse or neglect to pay the same, in such Manner as any other Toll or Duty payable at the same Turnpike-gate or Bar is by Law to be levied and recovered; and the Money arising from such additional Duty shall be applied to the Repair of the Highway where the same shall be collected.

III. And be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall drive any Waggon or other Carriage upon any Part of any Turnpike Road with more Horses than such Waggon or other Carriage shall on the same Day pass through any Turnpike-bar or Gate with, shall be deemed and adjudged to have taken off the said Horses with Intent to avoid paying the said additional Toll or Duty.

Persons driving with more Horses than such Waggon shall pass with the same Day, deemed to incur the Penalty.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, no Waggon, Cart or other Carriage, travelling for Hire upon any of the said Turnpike Roads, shall be drove or turned out of the same into any of the Roads adjacent, not being Turnpike Roads, in order to avoid, and thereby avoiding paying the Tolls and Duties appointed by this or any former Act or Acts to be paid at any Gate or Turnpike erected for the collecting and receiving the same; upon pain of forfeiting and losing any one of the Horses drawing such Waggon, Cart or Carriage, (not being the Thill or Shaft Horse) with all his Geers and Accoutrements, to the sole Use and Benefit of any Person or Persons who shall seize or distrain the same; and the Person or Persons making such Seizure or Distress shall proceed in like manner, and be intitled to the like Remedies, as is directed and given in Cases of Seizure of Horses, by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for making more effectual the several Acts passed for repairing and amending the Highways of this Kingdom.

Carriages exempted.

'VI. And whereas an Act of Parliament was made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Preservation of the publick Roads, in that Part of Great Britain called 'England, which hath proved insufficient for the Purpose, by reason that few of the Cranes, Machines 'or Engines, therein mentioned for the weighing of Carriages, have been erected; and to avoid such as 'have been erected, the Owners and Drivers of Waggons, and other Carriages, with excessive Weights, 'have in several Places left the Turnpike Road, and gone through other Roads and By-lanes, which have 'been repaired at a great Expence by the Inhabitants of the several Parishes and Places where the same lie, 'and thereby such Roads and By-lanes have been greatly damaged and made ruinous, to the great Preju-'dice and Expence of such Inhabitants, and the Income of the Toll hath been also much lessened:' For Remedy whereof, and rendering the said Act more effectual for the Purposes thereby intended, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, all Commissioners or Trustees already appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Repairs of any Highway or Highways in that Part of Great Britain called England, or any five or more of them, shall, and they are hereby required, at one or more Gate or Gates, Bar or Bars, or at some other convenient Place or Places within their respective Districts, to order and cause to be built and erected a Crane, Machine or Engine proper for the weighing of Carts, Waggons or other Carriages

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to oblige the Trustees of any Turnpike Road beyond thirty Miles Distance from London, or where the Tolls and Duties granted to such Trustees do not amount to the annual Sum of one hundred and fifty Pounds within thirty Miles Distance from London, to erect any Engine or Machine for the weighing Waggons or Carriages; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

1 Geo. 1. c. 57.

'VIII. And whereas an Act passed in the first Year of the Reign of King George the First has not been 'found sufficient to prevent the Mischiefs that frequently happen by the Negligence of Carters, Draymen, 'Carmen and Waggoners riding on their Carriages in the City of London, or within ten Miles thereof;' Now, in order more effectually to prevent such Mischiefs for the future, and for the more speedy and easy Conviction and punishing Offenders against the said Act, Be it therefore enacted, That if any Carter, Drayman, Carman, Waggoner or other Driver shall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, ride upon such Cart, Dray, Carr or Waggon in the City of London, or within ten Miles thereof, not having some other Person or Persons on Foot to guide or conduct the same, every such Person, being thereof convicted according to the Tenor of the aforesaid Act, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings, in case such Driver shall not be the Owner of such Carriage; and in case the Offender be the Owner of such Carriage, then any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings: Which Penalties shall be recovered, levied and applied, as by the said former Act is directed concerning the ten Shillings Penalty aforesaid.

Any Person may apprehend such Offender, and carry him before a Justice. Penalty of resisting, &c.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, though not a Peace Officer, to stop and apprehend such Offender, and to carry him, as soon as conveniently may be, before any Justice of the Peace for the County, City or Place where such Offence is committed; and in case any Person or Persons shall resist, abuse or prevent any Person endeavouring to apprehend any such Offender, or when he is apprehended, shall rescue or endeavour to rescue him, such Person so offending shall for every such Offence incur the Penalty of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and applied as aforesaid.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this or any former Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend to restrain or hinder any Owner or Owners of any Waggon or other Carriage, or his or their Servants, using or drawing with as many Horses or Beasts as shall be necessary for the drawing such Waggons or other Carriages up any such steep Hills, as the Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions and Places where such steep Hills do lie, shall at their Quarter-Sessions from time to time order and direct; which said Order and Direction shall be kept by the respective Clerks of the Peace among the Records of the Sessions, to which all Persons, at reasonable Times, shall have Recourse without Fee or Reward.

'XI. And whereas several Acts have been made, as well for repairing and amending divers publick 'Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, as for punishing Offences done or committed upon or 'to the Highways, the good Intentions whereof have not been answered for want of a due Execution of 'the said Laws;' For Remedy whereof, and as a further Encouragement to Informers, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this or any former Act, shall, from and after the tenth Day of September in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, be wholly given to and vested in the Informer or Person who shall sue for the same; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding: And every such Informer or Prosecutor shall and may from thenceforth sue for and recover such Forfeitures or Penalties by this or any of the said Acts imposed, in the same Manner as the same are severally and respectively directed to be sued for and recovered, or by Action at Law, to be brought by such Informer or Prosecutor in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in Manner following; that is to say, where any Person shall for any such Offence be liable to pay any pecuniary Penalty, it shall be lawful to sue for the same by Action of Debt; in which it shall be sufficient to declare, that the Defendant is indebted to the Plaintiff in the Sum of being forfeited by an Act, intituled,

An Act to regulate and restrain Paper Bills of Credit in his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, the Massachusets Bay, and New Hampshire in America; and to prevent the same being legal Tenders in Payments of Money.

6 Ann. c. 30.

'WHEREAS the Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for ascertaining the Rate of foreign Coins in her Majesty's Plantations in America, hath been intirely frustrated in his Majesty's said Colonies of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, the Massachusets Bay, and New Hampshire in America, by their creating and issuing, from Time to Time, great Quantities of Paper Bills of Credit, by virtue of Acts of Assembly, Orders, Resolutions or Votes, made or passed by their respective Assemblies, and making legal the Tender of such Bills of Credit in Payment for Debts, Dues and Demands; which Bills of Credit have, for many Years past, been depreciating in their Value, by means whereof all Debts of late Years have been paid and satisfied with a much less Value than was contracted for, which hath been a great Discouragement and Prejudice to the Trade and Commerce of his Majesty's Subjects, by occasioning Confusion in Dealings, and lessening of Credit in those Parts:' Therefore, for the more effectual preventing and remedying of the said Inconveniencies, may it please your most Excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, it shall not be lawful for the Governor, Council or Assembly for the Time being, or any of them, or for the Lieutenant Governor, or Person presiding or acting as Governor or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, within all or any of the aforesaid Colonies or Plantations of Rhode Island, and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, the Massachusets Bay, and New Hampshire, to make or pass, or give his or their Assent to the making or passing of any Act, Order, Resolution or Vote, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, whereby any Paper Bills or Bills of Credit, of any Kind or Denomination whatsoever, shall be created or issued under any Pretence whatsoever; or whereby the Time limited, or the Provision made, for the calling in, sinking or discharging of such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, as are already subsisting and passing in Payment, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, shall be protracted or postponed; or whereby any of them shall be depreciated in Value, or whereby the same shall be ordered or allowed to be re-issued, or to obtain a new and further Currency; and that all such Acts, Orders, Resolutions or Votes, which shall or may be passed or made, after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, within all or any of the said Colonies or Plantations, shall be, and are hereby declared to be null and void, and of no Force or Effect whatsoever.

No Act to pass for creating Paper Bills of Credit, or for protracting the Time for the calling in such,

or for depreciating or re-issuing the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, as are now subsisting, and passing in Payments, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations of Rhode Island, and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, Massachusets Bay and New Hampshire, shall be duly and punctually called in, sunk and discharged, according to the Tenor of, and within the Periods limited by the respective Acts, Orders, Votes or Resolutions, for creating and issuing, or continuing the same respectively, unless where the same have been altered by any subsequent Act or Acts of Assembly; and in that Case, that the same be discharged according to the Tenor mentioned in the said Act or Acts of Assembly; and that no such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, shall, from and after such Periods so limited, as aforesaid, be any longer current in all or any of the said Colonies or Plantations respectively.

Bills of Credit now subsisting, to be called in.

III. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to restrain any Governor or Governors, Council or Assembly, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, from making or passing any Act or Acts of Assembly in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, for the creating and issuing of such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, in lieu of, and for securing such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money, as shall be requisite for the current Service of the Year; so as by such Act or Acts of Assembly, whereby such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, shall be created or issued, sufficient Provision be made to secure the calling in, discharging and sinking of the same, within a short reasonable Time, not exceeding the Space of two Years, to be computed from the Dates of the respective Acts whereby such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, were created and issued; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Acts may pass for issuing Bills of Credit for the current Service of the Year, &c.

IV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to restrain any Governor or Governors, Council or Assembly, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, from making or passing any Act or Acts of Assembly, in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, for creating and issuing such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, in lieu of and for securing such reasonable Sum or Sums of Money as shall, at any Time hereafter, be necessary or expedient upon sudden and extraordinary Emergencies of Government, in case of War and Invasion, so as in every such Act or Acts of Assembly for the Emission of Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, so issued as aforesaid, due Care be taken to ascertain the real Value of all such principal Sum or Sums for which the same shall be so made, created and issued as aforesaid, and also the Interest to be paid thereon; and so as Care be likewise taken, in the said Act or Acts, to establish and provide an ample and sufficient Fund for the calling in, discharging and sinking, within as short and reasonable a Time as may be, not exceeding five Years at the farthest, all the said Bills, by actual Payment of all and every the Sum and Sums of Money for which the same shall be so made, created and issued as aforesaid, with the Interest due thereon.

'V. And whereas there are now subsisting and passing in Payment, within the said Colonies and Plantations, divers Kinds of Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, of various Denominations, which have been heretofore created and issued within the said Colonies and Plantations, or some of them, on Loans and otherwise, whereby private Persons and their Estates stand liable to, and bound for the Discharge of the Sums by them borrowed and received on such Loans; without the Payment of which Sums (in case any Difficulty or Obstruction should arise in the Payment thereof) such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit so issued on such Loans, cannot be called in, discharged and sunk, according to the Tenor of the respective Acts, Orders, Votes or Resolutions, by virtue whereof the same have been so respectively issued:' For the providing a Remedy for such Inconveniencies, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, of what Kind or Denomination soever, which have at any Time heretofore been created and issued on such Loans, within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, be duly called in, and discharged and sunk, according to the Tenor of the respective Acts, Orders, Votes or Resolutions, for creating and issuing, or continuing the same respectively, in like manner as all other Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, already subsisting within the said Colonies or Plantations, are herein before required to be called in, discharged and sunk.

Bills of Credit on Loans, to be called in.

Persons who have borrowed Money on Loans, &c. compellable to discharge the same.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons who have borrowed and taken up any Sum or Sums of Money on Loans, for the Discharge whereof they and their respective Estates stand bound, shall be required and compelled, by all due and legal Means, to satisfy and discharge the Sums by them borrowed, according to the Terms of such Loans respectively, and the true Intent and Meaning thereof, except as is herein before excepted; and in case any Deficiency or Loss shall happen by Failure of the Security so taken on such Loans respectively, that the same, and every Part thereof, shall be supplied and made good by an adequate Tax or Imposition, to be equally and rateably assessed, levied and raised within the said Colonies or Plantations respectively, where such Loss or Deficiency shall so happen.

No Paper Currency to be deemed a legal Tender.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, no Paper Currency, or Bills of Credit, of any Kind or Denomination, which may be made, created or issued in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, pursuant to the Provisions herein before made in this Act, shall be a legal Tender in Payment of any private Bargains, Contracts, Debts, Dues or Demands whatsoever, within the said Colonies or Plantations, or any of them.

VIII. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to make any of the Bills now subsisting in any of the said Colonies a legal Tender.

Penalty on Governor giving his Assent to any Act contrary to this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Governor or Commander in Chief for the Time being, in all or any of his Majesty's said Colonies or Plantations, whether commissioned by his Majesty, or elected by the People, shall, from and after the said twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, give his Assent to any Act of Assembly, Order, Resolution or Vote, for the Emission or Issuing of any Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, of any Kind or Denomination whatsoever; or for prolonging the Time limited for calling in and sinking any such Paper Bills, or Bills of Credit, as are now subsisting and passing in Payment; or for re-issuing or depreciating the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; such Act, Order, Resolution or Vote, shall be ipso facto null and void, and such Governor or Commander in Chief shall be immediately dismissed from his Government, and for ever after rendered incapable of any publick Office or Place of Trust.

CAP. IX.

An Act for enlarging the Term granted by two several Acts of the third and ninth Years of his late Majesty's Reign, for continuing the Duty of two Pennies Scots upon every Pint of Ale and Beer sold in the City of Edinburgh, for the Purposes therein mentioned; and for discontinuing Payment of the Petty Port Customs there.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Parliament of Scotland in the Year one thousand six hundred and ninety-three, a Duty of two Pennies Scots was granted to the Community of the City of Edinburgh, and to the Magistrates and Town Council of the same, and their Successors in Office, for the Uses therein specified, upon every Pint of Ale or Beer either brewed, brought in, or vended, tapped and sold, within the said Town and Suburbs and Liberties thereof, for the Space of fifteen Years and further, not exceeding the Space of thirty Years, commencing from the first Day of July one thousand six hundred and ninety-three; which said Duties were by an Act of the third Year of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for continuing the Duties of two Pennies Scots upon every Pint of Ale and Beer sold in the City and Liberty of Edinburgh, *for the Purposes therein mentioned; and it appears that the Revenue granted by the said Acts has been managed with the utmost Oeconomy, and faithfully applied to the Purposes thereby directed, yet the same having greatly decreased since the Commencement of the Act of the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, insomuch that it now produces little more than sufficient to answer the annual Burthens already charged thereupon: And whereas several of the publick Works by the said former Acts directed to be performed, remain still unfinished, and it will be impossible to finish the same, and discharge the Debt already contracted upon the Credit of the said Duties, without a further Continuation of the Term already granted for collecting the same:' To the End therefore that the said necessary Works may be compleated, and the said Debt discharged, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the said City of Edinburgh, in behalf of themselves and the Community of the said City, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Rates, Duties and Impositions made payable by the said Act of the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, upon all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in, vended, tapped or sold within the said City of Edinburgh, or Suburbs or Liberties thereof (except as in the said Act is excepted) and also the said Rates, Duties and Impositions thereby granted upon all Ale and Beer brewed, brought in for Sale, vended, tapped or sold within all or any of the Parishes of Saint Cuthbert, Canon Gate, South and North Leith, shall, from and after the Expiration of the Term granted by the said Act of the ninth Year of his late Majesty, be further continued, collected and made payable to the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the said City of Edinburgh for the time being, and their Successors, for and during the further Term of thirty-eight Years; and the said Duties shall be levied and paid by the same Means and Methods, and by and under the same Penalties and Forfeitures, and shall be subject and liable to the same Restrictions, Regulations and Inspection, and applicable to the same Works and other Purposes (except such Works as are already finished and compleated) as are prescribed, mentioned and expressed in the said Act of the ninth Year of his late Majesty's Reign; and that the said Act, and every Article, Rule, Clause, Matter and Thing therein contained, shall be in full Force and Effect from the Expiration thereof, for the said further Term of thirty-eight Years, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were at large repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing contained in this Act, or in the above-mentioned Act of the ninth Year of his late Majesty, shall be construed to subject to the said Duty or Imposition any Ale or Beer vended within the Precincts of the Castle of Edinburgh, for the Use of the Garrison, or any of the Inhabitants of the said Castle.

V. And

V. And in order to encourage Prosecutions against Persons keeping Bawdy-houses, Gaming-houses or other disorderly Houses, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any two Inhabitants of any Parish or Place, paying Scot, and bearing Lot therein, do give Notice in Writing to any Constable (or other Peace Officer of the like Nature, where there is no Constable) of such Parish or Place, of any Person keeping a Bawdy-house, Gaming-house, or any other disorderly House, in such Parish or Place, the Constable, or such Officer as aforesaid, so receiving such Notice, shall forthwith go with such Inhabitants to one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, City, Riding, Division or Liberty in which such Parish or Place does lie; and shall, upon such Inhabitants making Oath before such Justice, that they do believe the Contents of such Notice to be true, and entering into a Recognizance in the penal Sum of twenty Pounds each, to give or produce material Evidence against such Person for such Offence, enter into a Recognizance in the penal Sum of thirty Pounds, to prosecute with Effect such Person for such Offence at the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or at the next Assizes to be holden for the County in which such Parish or Place does lie, as to the said Justice shall seem meet; and such Constable or other Officer shall be allowed all the reasonable Expences of such Prosecution, to be ascertained by any two Justices of the Peace of the County, City, Riding, Division or Liberty where the Offence shall have been committed, and shall be paid the same by the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place; and in case such Person shall be convicted of such Offence, the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place shall forthwith pay the Sum of ten Pounds to each of such Inhabitants; and in case such Overseers shall neglect or refuse to pay to such Constable or other Officer such Expences of the Prosecution as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to pay upon Demand, the said Sums of ten Pounds and ten Pounds, such Overseers, and each of them, shall forfeit to the Person intitled to the same, double the Sum so refused or neglected to be paid.

Person keeping such Bawdy-house, &c. to be bound over.

VII. Provided also, That in case such Constable shall neglect or refuse, upon such Notice, to go before any Justice of the Peace, or to enter into such Recognizance, or shall be wilfully negligent in carrying on the said Prosecution, he shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds to each of such Inhabitants so giving Notice as aforesaid.

Constable neglecting his Duty forfeits 20l.

'VIII. And whereas, by reason of the many subtle and crafty Contrivances of Persons keeping Bawdy-'houses, Gaming-houses or other disorderly Houses, it is difficult to prove who is the real Owner or Keeper 'thereof, by which Means many notorious Offenders have escaped Punishment;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person who shall at any Time hereafter appear, act or behave him or herself as Master or Mistress, or as the Person having the Care, Government or Management of any Bawdy-house, Gaming-house or other disorderly House, shall be deemed and taken to be the Keeper thereof, and shall be liable to be prosecuted and punished as such, notwithstanding he or she shall not in Fact be the real Owner or Keeper thereof.

Evidence may be given by an Inhabitant, &c.

X. Indictment not removeable by Certiorari.

'XI. And whereas many Persons are deterred from prosecuting Persons guilty of Felony, upon ac-'count of the Expence attending such Prosecution, which is another great Cause and Encouragement of 'Thefts and Robberies;' In order therefore to encourage the bringing Offenders to Justice, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be in the Power of the Court, before whom any Person has been tried and convicted of any Grand or Petit Larceny, or other Felony, at the Prayer of the Prosecutor, and on Consideration of his Circumstances, to order the Treasurer of the County in which the Offence shall have been committed, to pay unto such Prosecutor such Sum of Money as to the said Court shall seem reasonable, not exceeding the Expences which it shall appear to the Court the Prosecutor was put unto in carrying on such Prosecution, making him a reasonable Allowance for his Time and Trouble therein; which Order the Clerk of Assize, or Clerk of the Peace respectively, is hereby directed and required forthwith to make out and to deliver unto such Prosecutor, upon being paid for the same the Sum of one Shilling, and no more; and the Treasurer of the County is hereby authorized and required, upon Sight of such Order, forthwith to pay to such Prosecutor, or other Person authorized to receive the same, such Sum of Money as aforesaid, and shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

20 Geo. 2. c. 41. 'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twentieth Year of his Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for vesting in his Majesty the Estates of certain Traitors; and for the more effectually discovering the same; and applying the Produce thereof to the Use of his Majesty; and for ascertaining and satisfying the lawful Debts and Claims thereupon) it is (among other Things) enacted, That in case his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall not make effectual Provision for the Payment and Satisfaction of all such Debts and Claims upon the Estates Real and Personal, by the said Act vested in his Majesty, as shall be decreed to be just and lawful, in the Manner by the said Act directed, within the Space of twelve Months after the same shall be respectively adjudged, then it shall be lawful for the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or any three of them, and they are thereby required to sell, or cause to be sold, so much of the Estates of the attainted Persons, as they shall judge necessary to be sold for Satisfaction of the Debts and Claims affecting the same, and apply the Money arising by the Sale thereof respectively, in Discharge of the several Debts or Claims to which they shall be adjudged to be liable: Provided nevertheless, That if his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, after the Expiration of the said Time, make effectual Provision for the Payment or Satisfaction of all the Debts or Claims upon any such Estate, and shall, before the same is sold, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Sign Manual, at any Time or Times, direct any such Estates not to be sold, then the said Barons shall not proceed in the Sale of any Estates so prohibited

20 Geo. 2. c. 50. to be sold: And whereas by another Act of the twentieth Year of the King, (intituled, An Act for taking away the Tenure of Ward-holding in Scotland, and for converting the same into Blanch and Feu-holdings; and for regulating the Casualty of Non-Entry in certain Cases; and for taking away the Casualties of single and Life-Rent Escheats incurred there, by Horning and Denunciation for Civil Causes; and for giving to Heirs and Successors there, a summary Process against Superiors; and for discharging the Attendance of Vassals at Head Courts there; and for ascertaining the Services of Tenants there; and for allowing Heirs of Tailzie there, to sell Lands to the Crown for erecting Buildings, and making Settlements in the Highlands) upon a Recital that it hath been, and may be found necessary for the Publick Service to erect Buildings, and make Settlements in certain Places in the Highlands of Scotland; it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person who is seized in, or possessed of, a Tailzied Estate in Scotland, to sell, dispone or resign, ad perpetuam remanentiam, any Part thereof, which his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to purchase, for erecting of Buildings, or making Settlements within the same: And by one other Act of the same

20 Geo. 2. c. 51. Year of the King, (intituled, An Act to enlarge the Time limited by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for restraining the Use of the Highland Dress, and to enable Heirs of Tailzie, Guardians, Tutors, Curators, and Trustees in Scotland, to sell Lands to the Crown) upon a Recital that it may be necessary for the Preservation of the publick Peace, and the further civilizing of the Inhabitants of the Highlands of Scotland, that Lands should be purchased there by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, which Lands may be subject to strict Tailzie, or belong to Infants, Pupils, Minors, Ideots, Lunaticks, fatuous or furious Persons; it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person who is seized in, or possessed of, a Tailzied Estate in Scotland, or for any Guardian, Tutor, Curator or Trustee of an Infant, Pupil, Minor, Ideot, Lunatick, fatuous or furious Person, to sell, dispose or resign, ad perpetuam remanentiam, the Whole or any Part of such Tailzied Estate, or the Estate of such Infant, Pupil, Minor, Ideot, Lunatick, fatuous or furious Person, which his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, may think fit to purchase for the Purposes aforesaid; which Lands so purchased shall remain in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, unalienable for ever, except as to the Power of granting Leases for seven Years, with a Diminution of a fifth Part of

'the usual Rent only: And whereas to prosecute more effectually the good Purposes intended by the said 'in part recited Acts, in order to strengthen the Foundations of the future Tranquillity of this Kingdom, 'it is necessary that some farther Provisions and Regulations be made;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Lands, Lordships, Baronies, Patronages, Tithes, Fishings, and other like Heritages, which became forfeited to his Majesty by the Attainder of the several Persons after named of High Treason, for their being engaged in the late unnatural and wicked Rebellion, and which were vested in his Majesty by the above-mentioned Act of the twentieth Year of his Reign; that is to say, the Lands and other Premisses which became forfeited by the Attainder of Simon late Lord Lovat; John Drummond, taking upon himself the Stile or Title of Lord John Drummond, Brother to James Drummond, taking on himself the Title of Duke of Perth; George late Earl of Cromarty; and Archibald M'Donald, Son of Col M'Donald of Barrisdale; as the same Lands, Lordships, Baronies, and other Premisses, are more particularly enumerated and described in the Title-deeds, Rights and Infeoffments of the said attainted Persons, or their Predecessors, or in the Surveys already taken, or hereafter to be taken thereof, by the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, in pursuance of the Powers given to them by the aforesaid Act of the twentieth Year of the King, by which the said Forfeited Estates were vested in his Majesty, shall, together with all the Parts and Pertinents of the same, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, be, and be deemed to be, annexed to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and shall be and remain for ever unalienable from the same; and all Grants, Charters, or other Rights, made or to be made, or granted, of all or any of the said Lands, Baronies, and other Premisses, by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, excepting as is herein after excepted, shall be void to all Intents and Purposes.

Certain Forfeited Estates annexed to the Crown unalienably.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away any Right, Title or Benefit whatsoever, which any Person or Persons are, shall or may be intitled to, in virtue of any Claim or Claims that have been, or shall be duly entered in the Court of Session in Scotland, pursuant to the aforesaid Act, or in virtue of any Decree or Decrees that hath been or shall be made upon such Claims.

Right of Claims not injured.

III. And to the End that Payment may be made to the just and lawful Creditors on the Forfeited Estates hereby annexed to the Crown, so far as the Value of such Lands and Premisses, whereupon such Claims shall have been sustained, shall respectively extend, and no further; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Actions may be brought before the Court of Session, in the Name of his Majesty's Advocate, against such Creditors, which shall and may be served against the Defendants, under the general Description of the Claimants upon such Estates, by one Edictal Citation, upon thirty Days Notice, to be affixed on the Walls of the Inner and Outer House of the Court of Session where the Rolls of Causes in that Court are usually affixed, in order to have the Value of such Forfeited Estates ascertained, upon a Proof brought before the said Court of the Rental and Value thereof; and in every such Action it shall and may be lawful for the Creditors on the said Estates to bring a joint Proof, and the said Lords of Session are hereby authorized and required to proceed in valuing the said Estates summarily, in setting which Valuation Regard shall be had to the ordinary Rates, at which like Lands and Estates have been sold in the same County; and the said Lords of Session shall thereafter, without Loss of Time, certify to the Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, the Amount of the several Claims on such Forfeited Estates, with the Value of the Lands and Real Estate, upon which respectively the Claimants are just and lawful Creditors; and in such Cases where the Claims that have been sustained exceed the Value of the Lands and other Premisses out of which they ought to be paid, that the said Lords of Session shall at the same Time certify the Order of Preference by which the said Claims ought to be paid, to the Extent of the Value that shall be certified as aforesaid; and the said Barons of Exchequer are hereby authorized and required to transmit such Certificate or Certificates to the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and upon such Certificate or Certificates being made and transmitted, the Creditors respectively shall be paid out of the then next Aids to be granted in Parliament, according to the Order of Preference specified in such Certificate; so that the Sum to be paid to the Creditors upon each of the said Estates shall not exceed the Value of such Estate certified as aforesaid.

IV. Provided always, That out of the Value to be certified as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful, in the first Place, to deduct or retain the Expence that shall have been laid out by the Agents for the Crown, in raising and prosecuting the Actions of Valuation and Ranking, and adjusting the Schemes of Division of the Value among the Creditors, as the same shall have been taxed and settled by the said Court of Session.

Expences of the Agents for the Crown to be paid.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Decree of the Court of Session concerning the Valuation of such Estates, or the Ranking or Order of Preference of the Creditors thereon, shall be final and binding upon all Persons concerned, in case thirty Days, on any of which such Proceedings as are usual and competent by the Laws of Scotland for reversing or amending such Decrees may be had, shall elapse without such Proceedings being had, made or commenced by either Party.

Decrees concerning such Valuation to be final.

'VI. And whereas, in such Cases, wherein the Claims upon the Lands, and other Premisses hereby 'annexed, shall clearly fall short of the Value of such Lands and Premisses upon which respectively they 'shall have been entered and sustained, it will not be necessary to raise and prosecute Actions of Valuation 'and Ranking in the Manner before prescribed;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every Case where the total Claims upon any Estate or Estates shall not exceed twenty Years Purchase, of the clear surveyed Rental, returned into the Court of Exchequer, of such Estate or Estates, the said Lords

Where the Claims do not exceed 20 Years Purchase, the same to be certified;

and the Creditors to be paid out of the next Aids.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the British White Herring Fishery, after impowering his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to incorporate sundry Persons in the said Act named, and such other Bodies and Persons, as in the said Act are mentioned, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Society of the free British Fishery, for the Purpose of carrying on and improving the British White Herring Fisheries; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That for an Encouragement to such Persons as shall become Subscribers to the Stock for carrying on the said Fisheries, that the Sum of three Pounds by the Year for each hundred Pounds, which shall be actually employed in the said Fishery, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Sum, shall be paid to the Proprietors of the said Stock, for and during the Space of fourteen Years from the Date of their Charter, out of the Customs, by the Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs, by equal Half-yearly Payments, provided that the said Society shall employ the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, at least, in the said Fisheries, within the Space of eighteen Months after the Date of such Subscription; and it is by the said Act further provided and enacted, That such Sums as shall bona fide be contracted to be paid within six Months, shall be deemed employed within the Sense and Meaning of the said Act, in case so much Money of the said Company as shall be sufficient to answer the said Contracts respectively, shall at the Time of making the same, be in the Bank of England: And whereas,

'pursuant

'pursuant to the Powers by the said Act given to his said Majesty, a Society by the Name of The Society of the Free British Fishery, hath been incorporated by Charter, bearing Date the eleventh Day of October one thousand seven hundred and fifty, and a very considerable Sum of Money hath been subscribed and paid in towards carrying on the Purposes of the said Act and Charter: And whereas the said Society, in the carrying on the said Fishery, did actually expend within the Term of eighteen Months, after the Date of such Subscription, or bona fide contract to be paid within the Term of six Months, allowed after the Expiration of such eighteen Months, the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, and upwards, and actually had in the Bank of England, before the Expiration of the said eighteen Months, Money sufficient to answer all such Contracts; but in regard the said Society had not in the Bank of England, at the respective Times of making such Contracts, Money sufficient to answer the said Contracts respectively, a Doubt hath arisen whether the said Society are, by the Words of the said Act, intitled to the Interest of three Pounds per Centum allowed by the said Act, for such Sum so by them expended or employed in the said Fishery: And whereas, amongst other Qualifications by the said Act made necessary for obtaining a Licence and Authority for the said Society's Busses or Vessels to proceed on the said Fishery, Oath is to be made by such Persons, as in the said Act mentioned, that it is their firm Purpose and determined Resolution, that such Busses or Vessels shall proceed either to Brassey's Sound in Shetland, and be at the Rendezvous of the said Fishery there, on or before the eleventh Day of June, and shall not shoot or wet their Nets before the thirteenth Day of the said Month of June, and shall continue fishing as in the said Act directed, to the first Day of October, or shall proceed to Campbell Town in Argyleshire, and be at the Rendezvous of the said Fisheries on or before the first Day of September, and shall continue fishing to the thirty-first Day of December, unless they shall have sooner compleated their Loading of Fish; which said several nominal Days by the late Alteration made by Law, in the Supputation of Time, in these Kingdoms, will, for the Time to come, fall eleven Days earlier in the Year, than was intended by the said Act: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Busses or Vessels employed by the said Society in the said Fisheries, are by the said Act obliged to have on board at their Return into Port from the said Fishery, the same Number of Hands as they are by the said Act required to have on board at the Rendezvous of such Vessels; and also whether such Vessels are at Liberty to put into Port between the Intervals of the two Fisheries, which are called the Shetland and the Yarmouth Fisheries, in order to change their Nets, and otherwise to prepare for the second Fishery: And whereas it is further enacted by the said recited Act, That every Buss or Vessel of the Burthen of seventy Tons, and designed for the said Fishery, shall, on her proceeding to Sea, have on board one Fleet of fifty Nets, each Net to be thirty Yards full upon the Rope, and seven Fathoms deep, and so in proportion for any Vessels of a greater or lesser Tonnage, and be provided with one other Fleet of fifty like Nets, on board a Jagger or Tender to attend the said Fishery, or left on Shore in a proper Place for the use of such Buss or Vessel; which Nets have been found by Experience to be much too deep for the Yarmouth Fishery;' Therefore for the putting an end to such Doubts, and for the further and better regulating the said Fisheries, Be it enacted and declared; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Society are, to all Intents and Purposes, intitled to have and receive the Interest of three Pounds by the Year for each hundred Pounds employed in the said Fishery, and proportionably for any greater or lesser Sum, for such Time and Term of Years, and payable in such Manner, as the same Society would have been intitled thereto, in case so much Money of the said Society as would have been sufficient to answer their said Contracts respectively, had, at the Time of making the same, been in the Bank of England; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

The Oaths with respect to the Days appointed for the Rendezvous, &c. for the Society's Vessels, to be made conformable to the Calendar now in Use.

The Society not intitled to the Bounty of 30 s. per Ton, where the Vessel returns with fewer Hands than she is required to have on board.

III. And be it further enacted, and it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Society shall not be intitled to have and receive the Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton by the said Act given or allowed to Vessels employed in the said Fisheries, in respect of such Vessels as shall return into Port at the End of the said Fishery with a less Number of Hands than such Vessel is required by the said Act to have on board at the Rendezvous of the said Society's Vessels, unless it shall be made appear that such Number hath been reduced by Death, or that such Reduction is occasioned by Sickness or Desertion, without any Default, Fraud or Collusion on the Part of the said Society; and also that it shall and may be lawful for the said Busses or Vessels, between the Intervals of the said Shetland and Yarmouth Fisheries, to put into any Port of Great Britain or Ireland for the Purpose of changing Nets, and otherwise preparing for such Yarmouth Fishery; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Between the Intervals of the Fisheries the Vessels may put into Port.

'V. And whereas by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the 'First, (intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the British Fishery in foreign Parts, and for better securing the Duties on Salt) after directing that all Foreign or British Salt to be used in the Curing of Fish for 'Exportation shall, on being landed, and during the Intervals of the fishing Seasons, be lodged in a Warehouse under the Lock and Key of an Officer for the Duties on Salt, as well as of the Proprietor of such 'Salt, it is enacted, That such Officer shall, on such Proprietor's complying with certain Conditions in 'the said Act mentioned, deliver into the sole Custody of such Proprietor, or his Agent, all the said Salt 'for the Curing of Fish taken during the said fishing Season; and that at the End of every fishing Season 'such Officer shall take a particular Account of the Quantities of Foreign and British Salt respectively 'remaining in Hand, which is to be immediately locked up in such joint Custody as aforesaid; and the 'Proprietors of such Salt, or their Agents, using such Salt as aforesaid, are by the said Act directed, as 'soon as possible after the End of every Fishing Season, to deliver an Account in Writing into the Office 'for the Duty on Salt in the said Act mentioned, containing the Quantity of Fish exported, or entered 'and shipped to be exported, on which the said Salt taken away after its Delivery into the sole Custody of 'such Proprietors, or their Agents, hath been used or consumed, together with Certificates by the proper 'Officers of the several Ports where the said Fish were shipped for Exportation, verifying the said Account; 'and by the said Act a Penalty of twenty Shillings is laid on such Proprietors of Salt, or their Agents, 'for every Bushel of Salt so taken out, which shall not be accounted for in the Manner therein before, or 'otherwise, as in the said Act mentioned, or which shall not be returned, or found remaining at the End 'of every fishing Season in the Cellars or Warehouses, as in the said Act mentioned: And by another Act

Geo. 1. c. 4.

'made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, (intituled, An Act for taking off the Duty 'upon all Salt used in the Curing Red Herrings, and laying a proportionable Duty upon all Red Herrings consumed 'at home only; and for ascertaining the Customs and Excise payable for the Sugar-houses in Scotland; and for 'making an Allowance for Salt lost in any Harbour or River of this Realm; and for the better securing the Duties 'on Salt delivered in Scotland) a Penalty of ten Shillings per Bushel is laid upon all Persons who shall have 'received into their sole Custody any Quantity of Foreign or British Salt, Duty free, for curing of Fish 'for foreign Markets, that shall not deliver to the proper Officers yearly, within three Months after the 'Expiration of each respective Year, such Accounts of the Salt received as aforesaid, and of the Fish 'cured therewith and exported, as the said Act of the fifth of his said late Majesty directs, together with

3 Geo. 2. c. 12.

'such Certificate as aforesaid, verifying the said Account: And by another Act made in the eighth Year 'of the Reign of his present Majesty, (intituled, An Act for granting and continuing the Duties upon Salt, 'and upon Red and White Herrings, for the further Term of four Years; and for giving further Time for the 'Payment of Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures and Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices) after reciting 'the said two several Acts of the fifth and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty, it is amongst 'other Things enacted, That after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-'five, no foreign Salt shall be delivered over from such joint Custody into such sole Custody as aforesaid, 'for curing Fish for Exportation, except such Proprietor, or his Agent, do give Security as in the said 'Act directed, to account for such foreign Salt in the Terms of, and according to the true Intent and 'Meaning of the said Acts of the fifth and eighth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty, or to answer 'the several Penalties in the said Acts directed to be recovered from the Proprietors offending against the 'said Acts, or either of them: And whereas the Society of the free British Fishery have used great Quan-'tities of foreign Salt in the curing of White Herrings, great Part of which hath been exported, or sent to, 'and sold at foreign Markets; and the said Society, as Proprietors of such Salt, or their Agents, have, 'from Time to Time, on delivering over such Salt from such joint Custody as aforesaid, into the sole 'Custody of such Agents, given such Security as by the said Act of the eighth Year of his present Majesty 'is directed, touching the accounting for such foreign Salt; but in regard that a considerable Part of such 'Fish hath been shipped off immediately from Sea, from on board the respective Vessels employed in 'taking and curing the same, without being first brought into Port, in order to secure a better Sale at 'foreign Markets, before the Arrival of the like Commodities from other Nations, the said Society, or

'their

'their Agents, have not been able fully to comply with the Directions of the said Acts, touching the 'accounting for such Part of the said Salt, as hath been employed in the curing of such Part of the said 'Fish, as hath been so sent away to foreign Markets immediately from Sea, there being no Provision in 'the present Laws how, and in what Manner, and by whom, the shipping of such Fish immediately from 'Sea for foreign Markets shall be verified, whereby the said Society, or their Agents, who have given such 'Security as aforesaid, are or will become liable to be sued on their several Securities aforesaid, for the 'several Penalties inflicted by the said Acts of the fifth and eighth Years of his said late Majesty; and the 'said Society will, in the further Prosecution of the said Fishery, be exposed to the same Difficulty, unless 'some Remedy be provided in Respect thereof:' Be it therefore enacted and declared, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Quantity of such White Herrings as have already been sent, or which hereafter shall be sent, by the said Society, or their Agents, to foreign Markets immediately from Sea, without being first brought into Port, shall be ascertained and made appear by the Oath of the Society's Superintendant of the said Fishery, to be made before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, or an Officer for the Duties on Salt, who are hereby impowered and required to administer the same; and a Certificate or Certificates under the Hands of the Secretary and Accomptant of the said Society, purporting, that it appears by Letters or Accounts from the Correspondents or Agents of the said Society, to whom such Fish mentioned in such Affidavit were consigned, that such Fish have come to the Hands of such Correspondents or Agents, or otherwise that such Fish have been lost at Sea.

The Quantity of White Herrings sent to foreign Markets, without being first brought into Port, to be ascertained by the Oath of the Society's Superintendant, and the Certificate of their Secretary and Accomptant.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That such Affidavit and Certificates shall be admitted and taken to all Intents and Purposes, as Evidence to verify the Quantity of such Fish so already sent, or hereafter to be sent away from Sea immediately as aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or either of them, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Such Affidavit and Certificate to be admitted.

'VII. And whereas the Place appointed by the said Act for the Rendezvous of the Vessels employed in 'the said Fisheries, on the first Day of September, has been in many Cases very inconvenient;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Vessels built and fitted out in the Manner required by the said Act, which shall rendezvous at Kirkwall in the Orkney Islands on or before the twelfth Day of September, and shall continue to be employed in fishing among the Shoals of Herrings, as they move, to the eleventh Day of January, unless the Loading of such Vessels be sooner compleated, shall (in case all the other Regulations and Conditions prescribed by the said Act be observed and performed with respect to such Vessels) be intitled to the Bounties granted by the said Act, in the same Manner as if such Vessels had rendezvoused at Campbell Town, in like Manner, and at the Time required by the said Act.

Vessels which shall rendezvous at Kirkwall, intitled to the Bounties.

VIII. Provided always, That no Fishing Vessel employed in the White Herring Fishery, shall be obliged to carry to the latter Fishing more than one Fleet of Nets; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

No Vessel obliged to carry to the latter Fishing more than one Fleet of Nets.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign 8 & 9 W. 3. 'of his late Majesty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the Repair of the Piers of Bridlington, alias Burlington, in the East Riding of the County of York, it was amongst other Things enacted, 'That from and after the first Day of May one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, and before and until 'the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and four, the Duties therein mentioned should be 'paid for the rebuilding, repairing and amending the said Piers; to wit, one Farthing for every Chaldron of Coals, that during the said Term should be laden on board any Ship, Hoy, Bark or other 'Vessel, at or in the Port of Newcastle upon Tine, or at Sunderland, Blythe, Seaton-Sluice, Culler-Coats, 'or any other Port, Harbour, Colliery, or Places that was or was reputed to be a Member of the Port of 'Newcastle; and to be paid to such Persons and in such Manner as by the said Act is directed; and by 1 Geo. 1. c. 49. 'another Act made and passed in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, 'referring to the said former Act, all the Duties thereby granted and made payable, and every Clause, 'Matter and Thing therein contained were revived and enacted, and directed to be continued and paid for 'fourteen Years, from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixteen, until the 'twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty: And whereas by one other Act made 5 Geo. 1. c. 10. 'in the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for enlarging 'the Time granted by two Acts of Parliament for Repairs of the Piers of Bridlington, alias Burlington; and for 'making the said Acts more effectual; it is thereby (amongst other Things) enacted, That the said Act passed 'in the eighth and ninth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third, with all the 'Powers thereby given, for charging, raising, levying, collecting and disposing of any Sum or Sums of 'Money, for or towards repairing or rebuilding the said Piers of Bridlington, alias Burlington, should from 'and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty, continue and be in full 'Force, for and during the Term of twenty-five Years; and that from and after the twenty-fourth Day 'of June one thousand seven hundred and nineteen, for the Term of thirty-six Years, the several additional

'Rates and Duties therein mentioned, (over and besides the Duty and Duties granted and continued as 'aforesaid, or payable before the passing of the same Act) should be raised, levied, collected and paid, for 'repairing and lengthening the said Piers as and in Manner therein expressed: And whereas by another Act

Refer to Chapter 8.

'WHEREAS the permitting of Wool, and Woollen or Bay Yarn, to be exported only from cer-'tain Ports in Ireland to certain Ports in England, is not of so great and extensive Advantage to the 'Trade of this Kingdom, as it would be if all the Ports in Great Britain and Ireland were opened for that 'Purpose;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons to export from any Port in Ireland any Wool, or Woollen or Bay Yarn, Wool-Fells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Wool-Flocks and Worsted Yarn, to any Port in Great Britain; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

'IX. And whereas by an Act made in the sixteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act for repealing certain Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences for retailing the same, and for laying 'other Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences to retail the said Liquors; it is enacted, That no Licence 'shall be granted to any Person or Persons whatsoever for selling by Retail any Spirituous Liquors or 'Strong Waters whatsoever, except to such Persons only who shall keep Taverns, Victualling-houses, 'Inns, Coffee-houses, or Ale-houses, and that if any such Licences shall be granted to any other Persons, 'the same are thereby declared void to all Intents and Purposes; and it is thereby also enacted, That if any 'Person or Persons shall presume or offer to retail any of the said Spirituous Liquors without taking out 'such Licence as is therein mentioned, and renewing the same yearly, in manner therein mentioned, he, 'she or they, shall respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of ten Pounds for each Offence; and in case such 'Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Sum of ten Pounds, the same being lawfully 'demanded, it shall and may be lawful for any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, 'Riding, Division, City or Liberty, upon Information upon Oath being made before him or them of such 'Refusal or Neglect, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to commit such 'Person or Persons to the House of Correction for the County, Riding, Division, City or Liberty, wherein 'such Person or Persons shall reside, there to remain and to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of two 'Months, to be reckoned from the Day of the said Commitment; and the Person or Persons shall not be 'discharged until he, she or they, shall have paid the said Sum of ten Pounds, or until the full Expiration 'of the said two Months; and that nothing in the said Act shall extend or be construed to enable any 'Person or Persons to sell any Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters by Retail, unless such Person or Persons 'be first licensed to sell Ale by two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, 'Division, City or Liberty wherein such Person or Persons shall sell the said Liquors, under the Hands 'and Seals of the said Justices: And whereas by one other Act made in the seventeenth Year of his Ma- 17 Geo. 2. c. 17. 'jesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arisen or 'to arise by the Duties on Spirituous Liquors, granted by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, and for ex- 'plaining and amending the said Act in relation to the Retailers of such Liquors, and for establishing an Agree- 'ment with the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies) it is enacted, That in 'case where a Licence shall have been granted for retailing Spirituous Liquors to any Person who shall at 'the Time of granting such Licence keep a Tavern, Victualling-house, Inn, Coffee-house or Alehouse, 'if such Person so licensed shall afterwards during the Time of continuing such Licence exercise the Trade 'of a Distiller, Grocer or Chandler, or keep a Brandy Shop or Shops for Sale of Spirituous Liquors, the 'Licence granted in every such Case shall be void; and such Persons retailing Spirituous Liquors after- 'wards shall forfeit ten Pounds for every such Offence, notwithstanding such Licence so obtained; and 'that no Licence for retailing Spirituous Liquors shall authorize any Person to whom the same may be 'granted to sell such Spirituous Liquors in any other Place except in such Houses or Places thereunto 'belonging wherein he, she or they shall inhabit and dwell at the Time of granting such Licence, which 'Penalties by virtue of the said Act made in the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign may be 'mitigated by such Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalty or Forfeiture may be mitigated by any 'Law or Laws of Excise: And whereas in and by a Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the twenty- 24 Geo. 2. c. 40. 'fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional 'Duty upon Spirituous Liquors, and upon Licences for retailing the same; and for repealing the Act of the twen- 'tieth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting a Duty to his Majesty to be paid by 'Distillers, upon Licences to be taken out by them for retailing Spirituous Liquors, and for the more effectually 'restraining the retailing of distilled Spirituous Liquors; and for allowing a Drawback upon the Exportation of British made Spirits; and that the Parish of Saint Mary le Bon in the County of Middlesex shall be under the 'Inspection of the Head Office of Excise) reciting, That it may be doubted whether the said Penalty of ten 'Pounds can be recovered within the Limits of the Head Office of Excise in London before a Justice or 'Justices of the Peace; it is thereby declared and enacted, That the said Penalty may be recovered, and 'any Person retailing Spirituous Liquors without a Licence within the Limits of the said Head Office, 'may be convicted before any Justice of the Peace for the City, County or Liberty, where the Offence 'shall be committed, as well as before the Commissioners of Excise; and that such Penalty shall not in any 'Case, either by the said Commissioners or Justice of the Peace, be mitigated or reduced below the Sum 'of five Pounds: And whereas, notwithstanding the last recited Clause, it may be doubted whether the 'Justices of the Peace acting in the several Places which are not within the Limits of or under the imme- 'diate Care, Inspection and Management of the said Head Office of Excise, may not mitigate or reduce 'the said Penalties of ten Pounds below the Sum of five Pounds:' Now to obviate such Doubt, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Penalties of ten Pounds shall not in any Case be mitigated or reduced below the Sum of five Pounds, either by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Justices of Peace, whether such Justices act within or without the Limits of the said Head Office of Excise.

The Penalties of 10l. inflicted by the recited Acts, not to be mitigated below 5l.

'X. And whereas by one other Clause in the said Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-fourth Year 24 Geo. 2. c. 40. 'of his present Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, That no Licence for the selling by Retail of Spirituous

'Liquors,

'Liquors, shall be granted within the Limits of the Head Office of Excise in London, but to such as shall 'occupy a Tenement or Tenements of the yearly Value of ten Pounds or upwards, and for which they 'shall accordingly be rated, and pay in the Parish Rates; and that no Licence shall be of any Avail to 'any Person not so qualified, or for any longer Time than the Person so licensed shall be qualified as afore-'said, but shall be absolutely void: And whereas it is the true Intent and Meaning of the said Clause, that 'no Licence for retailing Spirituous Liquors be granted within the Limits of the Head Office of Excise in 'London, to any Person but to such as are sufficient and of Ability to occupy a Tenement or Tenements 'of the yearly Value of ten Pounds or upwards; and such Rate and Payment to the Church and Poor, is 'intended only as an additional Proof of such Sufficiency: And whereas within the Limits of the Head 'Office of Excise in London, there are several Persons who keep Taverns, Victualling-houses, Inns, Coffee-'houses or Ale-houses, for which they pay considerably more than ten Pounds a Year, but such Persons 'are not rated, and do not pay accordingly to the Church and Poor for the same, such Taverns, Victual-'ling-houses, Inns, Coffee-houses and Ale-houses, being situate in Places where Occupiers of Houses or 'Tenements are not rated or rateable to the Church and Poor;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, Commissioners, &c. within the Limits of their Head Office may grant Licences to Persons renting Houses of 12 l. per Annum, tho' not rated to the Poor.

That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, and their Officers respectively, within the Limits of the said Head Office of Excise in London, to grant and deliver Licences for the retailing of Spirituous Liquors, pursuant to the Directions of the said several Acts of Parliament made in the sixteenth and twenty-fourth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, to any Person or Persons within the Limits of the said Head Office of Excise in London, applying for such Licence or Licences, who shall at the Time of his, her or their Application for the same, in any Tenement situate in any Place where the Occupiers of Houses or Tenements are not rated or rateable to the Church and Poor, keep a Tavern, Victualling-house, Inn, Coffee-house or Ale-house, for which he, she or they respectively shall, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Excise, make it appear that he, she or they, do really and bona fide pay the full yearly Rent or Sum of twelve Pounds or upwards, without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, although the Person or Persons so applying for such Licence or Licences be not actually rated, and do not pay to the Church and Poor for the same accordingly.

Persons so licensed, to be subject to the Laws in Force, &c.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That every Person to be licensed for the retailing of Spirituous Liquors, pursuant to this Act, shall be subject to all other Provisions of the several Laws now in Force, in any wise relating to the retailing of Spirituous Liquors, or to the licensing the Retailers thereof, and on Breach of the said Provisions, or any of them, shall be subject and liable to the like Penalties, Forfeitures and Punishments, in the same Manner as other Retailers of Spirituous Liquors now are; and all and every Person and Persons authorized to put the said Laws in Execution against the Offenders acting contrary to them, or any of them, are hereby authorized and required to put the said Laws and each of them in Execution, against every Person to be licensed as aforesaid, who shall offend against the said Laws, or any of them.

24 Geo. 2. c. 40.

'XII. And whereas in and by one other Clause in the said Act of Parliament made in the twenty-fourth 'Year of his Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, That from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven 'hundred and fifty-one, no Person whatsoever, being a common Brewer of Ale or Beer, or Inn-keeper, 'Distiller, or other Seller of or Dealer in any Kind of Spirituous Liquors, or who is or are or shall be 'interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, shall during such Time as he or they shall be such 'common Brewer, Inn-keeper, Distiller, or other Seller of or Dealer in Spirituous Liquors, or interested 'in any of the said Trades or Businesses, be capable or have any Power to act, or shall be directly or in-'directly concerned in acting as a Justice of the Peace, in any Matter or Thing whatsoever which shall 'any ways concern the Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted by any Act or Acts of 'Parliament in any wise relating to Distillers or Makers of Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters for Sale, 'or to the Duty or Duties imposed upon Low Wines, Spirits or Strong Waters, or any other Kind of 'Spirituous Liquors whatsoever, or to the granting Licences to the Retailers of Spirituous Liquors: And 'whereas notwithstanding the last recited Clause, it is doubted whether common Brewers of Ale or Beer, 'or Inn-keepers, Distillers, or other Sellers of or Dealers in any Kind of Spirituous Liquors, or who are 'or shall be interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, being Justices of the Peace, may not grant 'Licences to the Retailers of Beer or Ale, which Licence is one of the necessary Requisites to intitle such 'Retailers to apply for a Licence to retail Spirituous Liquors: And whereas it is reasonable that such Per-'sons, and also Victuallers and Malsters, being Justices of the Peace, should be restrained from granting 'Licences to retail Beer and Ale;' Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, no Justice of the Peace, being a common Brewer of Ale or Beer, Inn-keeper or Distiller, or other Seller of or Dealer in Ale or any Kind of Spirituous Liquors, or interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, or being a Victualler or Malster, shall during such Time as he shall be such common Brewer, Inn-keeper, Distiller, Victualler or Malster, or other Seller of or Dealer in Ale or Spirituous Liquors, or interested in any of the said Trades or Businesses, be capable or have any Power to grant any Licence or Licences to any Person or Persons whatsoever, for selling Ale, Beer, or any other Liquors by Retail; and in case any such Justice or Justices shall, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, presume to grant any such Licence, the same shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the fifteenth and sixteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Duty on foreign Cambricks; and for allowing thereout a Bounty upon a certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That out of the additional Duty by the said Act imposed on foreign Cambricks, there should be given and paid in Manner, and upon the Conditions therein mentioned, a Bounty of one Penny for every Yard of British and Irish Linens made of Hemp or Flax of the Value of six Pence per Yard, and not exceeding the Value of twelve Pence per Yard; and of one Halfpenny for every Yard of such British and Irish Linens under the Value of six Pence per Yard, which from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and forty-three, and within the Term of seven Years, to commence from the said twenty-fifth Day of March, or at any Time thereafter, before the End of the then next Session of Parliament, should be exported out of Great Britain to Africa, America or Portugal, or which should be exported to Spain, from and after the Time that it should be lawful to export such Linen to that Kingdom: And whereas by an Act made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for effectually preventing the Exportation of foreign Linens, under the Denomination of British or Irish Linens, the Payment of the said Bounty is subject to certain Regulations in the said Act expressed: And whereas by another Act made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for allowing certain additional Bounties on the Exportation of British and Irish Linens, additional Bounties were granted thereon, and the Payment thereof, and of the former Bounties, was made subject to certain other Regulations in the said Act expressed: And whereas by an Act made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven; and also for enabling his Majesty to raise a further Sum of Money for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned; and for the further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for applying a certain Sum of Money for defraying the Charge of the Allowances to several Officers and Gentlemen of the two Troops of Horse Guards, and three Regiments of Horse, lately reduced, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven; and for continuing the Bounties on the Exportation of British and Irish coarse Linens; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Bounties on the Exportation of British and Irish coarse Linens should continue to be paid under the Regulations of the Acts of the fifteenth, sixteenth, and eighteenth Years of his Majesty's Reign; and that the same should be paid out of such Part of the Old Subsidy as is applicable to the Payment of Incidents: And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of one million out of the Sinking Fund, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine; and for enabling his Majesty to raise a further Sum of one Million for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and for applying a certain Sum for defraying certain Charges and Allowances to the Officers and private Gentlemen of the reduced Troops of Horse Guards; and for continuing the Bounties on the Exportation of British and Irish Linens; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Lottery Tickets, Receipts, Annuity Orders, or other Orders, lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Bounties on the Exportation of British and Irish coarse Linens should continue to be paid in like Manner, and under the like Regulations, as directed by the Acts of the fifteenth and sixteenth, and of the eighteenth Years of his Majesty's Reign, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and fifty, for and during the further Term of three Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and that the same should be paid out of such Part of the Old Subsidy as is applicable to the Payment of Incidents: And whereas the Manufacture of coarse Linens hath been increased and improved in Great Britain and Ireland, and it may reasonably be presumed that the Manufacture of such Linens may be carried on in Places where the same hath been established, and elsewhere, without the further Continuance of any such Bounty on the Exportation thereof: And whereas under the Directions of the Commissioners and Trustees for improving Fisheries and Manufactures in Scotland, some Progress hath been made in the Manufactures of Linens in the Highlands of Scotland; for the better civilizing and improving whereof, several Provisions have been made in this present Parliament, manifestly conducive to the Publick Tranquillity and Welfare: And whereas the Encouragement of the Manufacture of coarse Linens in those Parts of the said Highlands, wherein the Manufacture of Linens hath either not been already established, or hath not already been advanced to any considerable Degree of Perfection, will be a further Means of improving and civilizing the said Highlands; 'WHEREAS Sir Hans Sloane of Chelsea in the County of Middlesex Baronet, having, through the Course of many Years, with great Labour and Expence gathered together whatever could be procured either in our own or foreign Countries, that was rare and curious, did, by a Codicil bearing Date the twentieth Day of July in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, and annexed to his last Will and Testament, after having expressed his Will and Desire that his Collection, in all its Branches, might be, if it were possible, kept and preserved together Whole and Intire, in his Manor House in the Parish of Chelsea, give, devise and bequeath, to certain Trustees therein named, all that his Collection or Museum, at, in or about his said Manor House, consisting of all his Library of Books, Drawings, Manuscripts, Prints, Medals and Coins ancient and modern, Antiquities, Seals, Cameas and Intaglios, precious Stones, Agates, Jaspers, Vessels of Agate and Jasper, Chrystals, Mathematical Instruments, Drawings, and Pictures, and all other Things in the said Collection or Museum, more particularly described and numbered, with short Histories or Accounts of them, with proper References, in certain Catalogues by him made, containing thirty-eight Volumes in Folio, and eight Volumes in Quarto, (except such Pictures as are not marked with the Word Collection) to have and to hold to them and their Successors and Assigns for ever, for such Purposes, and with such Powers, and under such Restrictions, as in the said Codicil are expressed; willing and desiring thereby, that the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, should make their humble Application to his Majesty, or to Parliament, at the next Session after his Decease, as should be thought most proper, in order to pay the full and clear Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, unto his Executors, or the Survivors of them, within twelve Months after his Decease, in Consideration of the said Collection Will of Sir Hans Sloane.

'or Museum; and also to obtain such sufficient and effectual Powers and Authorities for vesting in the said 'Trustees all and every Part of his said Collection or Museum before-mentioned, in all its Branches; and 'also his said Capital Manor House, with such Gardens and Out-houses as should thereunto belong and be 'used by him, at the Time of his Decease, and also the Water of or belonging to his Manor of Chelsea 'coming from Kensington; and also obtain a sufficient Fund or Provision for maintaining and taking care 'of his said Collection and Premisses, and for repairing and supporting his said Manor House, Water-'work and Premisses; but in case Payment of the said Sum of twenty thousand Pounds should not be had 'and obtained, and made unto his Executors, or the Survivors of them, within twelve Months next after 'his Decease, and no such Act of Parliament should be obtained, for settling, preserving, establishing, 'maintaining and continuing, his said Collection and Premisses, in such Manner as in his said Codicil 'is expressed, then and not otherwise his Will was and he did in such Case thereby direct, That his said 'Executors, or the Survivors of them, should, for the like Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, sell and 'dispose of all and every Part of the said Collection and Museum, as before described, together with the 'Catalogues thereto belonging, for the Use of the several foreign Academies therein described, and in 'the Manner therein mentioned; CAP. XXIV.

An Act for allowing further Time for Inrolment of Deeds and Wills made by Papists; and for Relief of Protestant Purchasers, Devisees and Lessees. EXP. Time granted to 1 Jan. 1754.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to render more effectual an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for providing a publick Reward for such Person or Persons as shall discover the Longitude at Sea, with regard to the making Experiments of Proposals made for discovering the Longitude; and to enlarge the Number of Commissioners for putting in Execution the said Act.

12 Ann. st. 2. c. 15.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for providing a publick Reward for such Person or Persons as shall dis-'cover the Longitude at Sea, the Commissioners therein and thereby named and constituted, or any five or 'more of them, have full Power to hear and receive any Proposal or Proposals that shall be made to them 'for discovering the said Longitude; and in case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them 'shall be so far satisfied of the Probability of any such Discovery, as to think it proper to make Expe-'riment thereof, they shall certify the same under their Hands and Seals to the Commissioners of the 'Navy for the Time being, together with the Persons Names who are Authors of such Proposals; and 'upon producing such Certificate, the said Commissioners are thereby authorized and required to make out 'a Bill or Bills for any such Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding two thousand Pounds, as the said 'Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude, or any five or more of them, shall think 'necessary for making the Experiments, payable by the Treasurer of the Navy; which Sum or

'Sums

'Sums the Treasurer of the Navy is by the said Act required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons 'as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for Discovery of the said Longitude to make those Experi- 'ments, out of any Money that shall be in his Hands unapplied for the Use of the Navy: And whereas 'for a due and sufficient Encouragement to any such Person or Persons as shall discover a proper Method 'for finding the said Longitude, it is likewise enacted by the said Act, That the first Author or Authors, 'Discoverer or Discoverers of any such Method, his or their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, shall 'be intitled to and have such Reward, as in the said Act is particularly mentioned: And whereas by 'another Act of Parliament made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 14 Geo. 2. c. 39. 'An Act for surveying the chief Ports and Head Lands on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands 'and Plantations thereto belonging, in order to the more exact Determination of the Longitude and Latitude 'thereof; reciting in Part the said Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her said late 'Majesty Queen Anne; and also reciting that it was absolutely necessary for making the Discovery useful 'at Sea, and for the Security of Ships approaching near the Shoars, that the chief Ports and Head Lands 'on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands and Plantations thereto belonging, should be 'first surveyed, and the Longitude and Latitude of such Places determined more exactly than had then 'been done; and likewise reciting that some Doubts had arisen, whether by the Words of the said Act of 'Parliament made in the twelfth Year of Queen Anne, the said Sum of two thousand Pounds appointed 'for making such Experiments, or any Part thereof, could be applied for such Survey, or fixing the Lon- 'gitude or Latitude of such Places, it was enacted by the said Act made in the fourteenth Year of the 'Reign of his present Majesty, That the said Commissioners for discovering the Longitude, or any five or 'more of them, should have full Power to apply such Part of the said Sum of two thousand Pounds men- 'tioned in the said first recited Act, as had not then been laid out in Experiments, as they should think 'necessary for the making such Survey, and determining the Longitude and Latitude of the chief Ports 'and Head Lands on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands and Plantations thereto 'belonging; and that such Sum or Sums, Part of the said two thousand Pounds, which the said Commis- 'sioners, or any five or more of them, should think necessary, should be paid immediately by the Trea- 'surer of the Navy to such Person or Persons as should be appointed by the said Commissioners for the 'Discovery of the Longitude to make such Survey, and determine such Longitude and Latitude, out of 'the Money that should be in the Hands of such Treasurer unapplied for the Use of the Navy: And 'whereas a competent Number of the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude have '(by virtue of the Powers vested in them by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen 'Anne) heard and received several Proposals made to them at different Times for discovering the said Lon- 'gitude, and were so far satisfied of the Probabilities of such Discoveries, that they thought it proper to 'make Experiments thereof, and accordingly certified the same from Time to Time to the Commissioners 'of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Name of Master John Harrison, who was Author of 'the said Proposals; whereupon Bills were made out for several Sums of Money, amounting in the Whole 'to one thousand two hundred and fifty Pounds, all which respective Sums were paid to the said John Har- 'rison by the Treasurer of the Navy, pursuant to the Directions of the said last-mentioned Act of Parlia- 'ment, as Parts of the said two thousand Pounds therein mentioned; which the said Commissioners for 'discovering the said Longitude thought necessary for making the said Experiments: And whereas a like 'competent Number of the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude did (by virtue and 'in pursuance of the Powers vested in them by the said above-mentioned Acts of Parliament) 'appoint Master William Whiston to survey and determine the Longitude and Latitude of the chief Ports 'and Head Lands on the Coasts of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands and Plantations thereto be- 'longing; and did also apply the further Sum of five hundred Pounds (other Part of the said Sum of two 'thousand Pounds mentioned in the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne) which 'they thought necessary for the making such Survey, and determining the said last-mentioned Longitude 'and Latitude, and which said Sum of five hundred Pounds was paid to the said William Whiston accord- 'ingly by the Treasurer of the Navy: And whereas by reason of the several Payments made by the Trea- 'surer of the Navy to the said John Harrison and William Whiston respectively as aforesaid, amounting in 'the Whole to one thousand seven hundred and fifty Pounds, the said Commissioners for discovering the 'said Longitude have at present, by virtue of the said Acts of Parliament, Power only to apply the Sum of 'two hundred and fifty Pounds, and no more (being the Remainder of the said two thousand Pounds) 'towards making any further Experiments which they may think proper and necessary to be made, in order 'to discover the said Longitude: And whereas from the Experiments which have already been made in pur- 'suance of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners as aforesaid, there is great Reason to expect, that 'by continuing to encourage ingenious Persons to invent and make further Improvements and Experiments, 'in order to discover the said Longitude, such Discoveries may at length be produced, as will effectually 'answer that End, and thereby contribute very much to the Advantage of the Trade and Honour of this 'Kingdom;' Therefore for enabling the said Commissioners to cause such further Experiments to be made as they shall think proper for the Purposes aforesaid; Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this pre- sent Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Commissioners constituted by the said Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, for the Dis- covery of the Longitude at Sea, and for examining, trying and judging of all Proposals, Experiments and Improvements relating to the same, or any five or more of them, have full Power to hear and receive any Proposal or Proposals that have been or shall hereafter be made to them for discovering the said Longitude at Sea, and in case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall be so far satisfied of the Pro- bability

The Commissioners constituted by 12 Ann. c. 15. impowered to receive Proposals for discovering the Longitude, and where they think proper to make Experiments, they are to certify the same, and the Author's Name, to the Commissioners of the Navy, who are to make out a Bill for such a limited Sum as shall be thought necessary, to be paid to the Person making the Experiment.

bability of any such Proposal or Discovery as to think it proper to make Experiment thereof, they shall certify the same under their Hands and Seals to the Commissioners of the Navy for the Time being, together with the Persons Names who shall be the Authors of such Proposals; and upon producing such Certificate, the said Commissioners of the Navy are hereby authorized and required to make out a Bill or Bills for any such Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding two thousand Pounds, over and above the aforesaid Sum of two hundred and fifty Pounds, being the Remainder of the two thousand Pounds mentioned in the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late Queen Anne, as the said Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude, or any five or more of them shall think necessary for making any Experiments in pursuance of this Act, or either of the said former Acts above-mentioned, payable by the Treasurer of the Navy; which Sum or Sums the Treasurer of the Navy for the Time being is hereby required to pay immediately to such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the Commissioners for the Discovery of the said Longitude to make those Experiments, out of any Money that shall be in his the said Treasurer's Hands unapplied for the Use of the Navy.

Additional Commissioners appointed.

'II. And whereas many of the Commissioners appointed by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of 'the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne are deceased;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Governor of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich for the Time being, the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty for the Time being, the Secretaries of the Treasury for the Time being, the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being, and the Comptroller of the Navy for the Time being, shall be, and they are hereby added to and joined with such of the Commissioners appointed by the said Act for discovering the Longitude as are surviving; and the said Persons hereby appointed Commissioners, shall and may act, to all Intents and Purposes, for putting in Execution the said former Acts and this present Act, as fully and effectually as if they had been appointed Commissioners by the said Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne.

'WHEREAS the Laws concerning Alehouses, Inns and Victualling-houses, and the licensing thereof, are defective and insufficient for correcting and suppressing the Abuses and Disorders frequently done and committed therein, and also for the Conviction and due Punishment of Persons taking upon themselves to sell Ale, Beer or other Liquors by Retail without Licence;' Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon granting Licences by Justices of the Peace to any Person to keep an Alehouse, Inn, Victualling-house or to sell Ale, Beer and other Liquors by Retail, every such Person shall enter into a Recognizance to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of ten Pounds, with two sufficient Sureties, each in the Sum of five Pounds, or one sufficient Surety in the Sum of ten Pounds, under the usual Condition, for Maintenance of good Order and Rule within the same; and in case the Person applying for such Licence shall be hindered through Sickness or Infirmity, or any other reasonable Cause, to be allowed by the said Justices of the Peace to attend in Person at the Meetings of the same Justices for granting the said Licences, then that it shall and may be lawful for them to grant such Licence, upon two sufficient Sureties entering into such Recognizance, each in the Penalty of ten Pounds, for Performance of the Condition of the said Recognizance; which said Recognizance, with the Condition thereof, fairly written or printed, shall forthwith, or at the next General or Quarter-Session of the Peace at farthest, after granting such Licences, be sent or returned to the Clerks of the Peace, or Persons acting as such, for every County, Riding, City, Liberty or Town Corporate in that Part of Great Britain called England, wherein such Licences shall be granted, under the Hands of the Justices of the Peace before whom such Recognizances were taken, with and to send the Recognizances to the Clerks of the Peace, on Penalty of 3 l. 6 s. 8 d.

Justices licensing Alehouses, &c. to take Recognizance in the Sum of 10 l. for the Maintenance of good Order;

to be by the said Clerks of the Peace, or such other Person acting as such, duly entered or filed amongst the Records of the Sessions of the Peace; and that for every such Licence granted without taking such Recognizance, and for every such Recognizance taken, and not sent or returned as aforesaid, every Justice of the Peace signing such Licence shall forfeit the Sum of three Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence.

Licences to be granted to none not licensed the Year preceding, unless such as shall produce Certificates of their good Fame.

II. And for the better preventing Disorders in Alehouses, be it further enacted, That no Licence to keep the same shall be granted to any Person not licensed the Year preceding, unless such Person produce at the General Meeting of the Justices in September a Certificate under the Hands of the Parson, Vicar or Curate, and the major Part of the Churchwardens and Overseers, or else of three or four reputable and substantial Householders and Inhabitants of the Parish or Place where such Alehouse is to be, setting forth that such Person is of good Fame and of sober Life and Conversation; and it shall be mentioned in such Licence, that such Certificate was produced, otherwise such Licence shall be null and void.

III. Provided nevertheless, That if any licensed Person shall die or remove from an Alehouse, it shall be lawful for the Person succeeding to such House to keep on the said Alehouse during the Residue of the Term of such Licence, on condition that within thirty Days after such Death or Removal such Person obtain such Certificate as aforesaid, to be signed by some neighbouring Justice, in order to its being produced at the next General Meeting in September; and if such Certificate be not so obtained and signed within the said thirty Days, then immediately from and after the Expiration thereof, such Licence shall be null and void; and no Licence shall intitle any Person to keep an Alehouse in any other Place than that in which it was first kept by virtue of such Licence, and such Licence, with regard to all other Places, shall be null and void.

2 Geo. 2. c. 28. §. 11.

'IV. Whereas by an Act made in the second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to revive the Laws therein mentioned; amongst other Things it was enacted, That no Licence shall be granted to any Person to keep a common Inn or Alehouse, or to retail any Brandy or strong Waters, but at a General Meeting of the Justices of the Peace acting in the Division where the said Person dwells, to be holden on the first Day of September yearly, or within twenty Days after; or at any other General Meeting of the said Justices to be holden for the Division wherein the said Person resides; which Regulation, by reason of the last-mentioned Provision, has been found by Experience not to have the Effect intended by the said Regulation;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the last before-mentioned Provision shall be and is hereby repealed; and that from henceforth no Licence for the Purposes aforesaid shall be granted, but on the first Day of September yearly, or within twenty Days after; and that such Licence shall be made for one Year only, to commence on the twenty-ninth Day of the said September; and that the Day and Place for granting such Licences shall be appointed by two or more of the Justices acting for the Division, by a Warrant under their Hands and Seals, at least ten Days before such Meeting, directed to the High Constable or High Constables of the said Division, requiring him or them to order his or their respective Petty Constables or other Peace Officers, to give Notice to the several Innkeepers and Alehouse-keepers within their respective Constablewicks, of the Day and Place of such Meeting; and all Licences hereafter granted at any other Time or Place shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Recovery of the Forfeitures for granting Licences without taking a Recognizance.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Forfeitures for granting Licences, without taking Recognizances, shall and may be sued for and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall sue or prosecute for the same, together with Costs of Suit; wherein no Essoin, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

Where a Justice shall adjudge the Recognizance to be forfeited, he is to summon the Party to the Quarter-Sessions, &c.

VII. And be it farther enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, wherein such Licence shall be granted, upon Complaint or Information that such licensed Person hath done or committed any Act, Offence or Misdemeanor, whereby in the Judgment of the same Justice such Recognizance may be forfeited, or the Condition thereof broken, may by Summons under his Hand and Seal require such Person so complained of, or informed against, to appear at the next General or Quarter-Session of the Peace for the said County, Riding, City, Liberty or Town Corporate, then and there to answer to the Matter of such Complaint or Information; and also may bind the Person or Persons who shall make such Complaint or Information, or any other Person or Persons, in a Recognizance to appear at such General or Quarter-Session, and give Evidence against such Person so complained of or informed against; and the Justices of the Peace in their General or Quarter-Sessions shall have Power to direct the Jury which shall attend at such Sessions for the Trial of Traverses, or some other Jury of twelve honest and substantial Men, to be then and there impanelled by the Sheriff, without Fee or Reward, to inquire of the Misdemeanor charged in the said Complaint or Information; and if such Jury shall find that the Person so complained of, or informed against, hath done any Act whereby the Condition of his Recognizance is broken, such Act being specified in such Complaint or Information, it shall and may be lawful for the Court at such General or Quarter-Sessions to adjudge such Person guilty of the Breach of such Recognizance; which Verdict and Adjudication shall be final to all Intents and Purposes; and thereupon and the Jury finding him guilty, the Re-thereupon the said Justices shall order the Recognizance entered into by such Offender to be estreated into his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to be levied to his Majesty's Use; and that the said Person, the Condition of whose Recognizance shall be so adjudged to be broken and forfeited, shall, from and after such Adjudication, be utterly disabled to sell any Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters, for the Space of three Years; and any Licence or Licences granted or to be granted to such Person during such Term, shall be void, and of none Effect.

Justices may adjourn the Trial to next Sessions.

'IX. And whereas many Persons presume to sell Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry or other Liquors, without 'such Licence as is required by Law for selling the same; and it is difficult by reason of many Evasions 'that are made use of, and by some Defects in former Laws, to convict such Offenders;' Be it therefore enacted, That where any Justice of the Peace shall suspect that any Alehouse-keeper, Victualler or Retailer, sells Ale, Beer, Cyder or Perry, without such Licence, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice to call such suspected Person before him, and also any Excise Officer or Gauger, to produce before such Justice his Stock Book, or other Account which such Officer keeps, of the Charge or Survey of such suspected Person, in respect of any of the Liquors aforesaid; and likewise to examine such Excise Officer or Gauger upon Oath, touching the manner in which such Officer surveys or charges such suspected Person in respect of any of the Liquors aforesaid, or how or in what manner such suspected Person actually pays the Duties for any of the said Liquors; and if it shall appear by such Stock Book or other Account, or by the Examination of the said Officer or Gauger, that such Person so suspected of selling any of the Liquors aforesaid, is surveyed as a Victualler or Retailer, and is charged with the same Duties that Victuallers and Retailers, are usually charged with, and pay for any of the Liquors aforesaid, and is not intitled to the Allowance or Abatement given to common Brewers, then and in such Case such suspected Person shall be deemed an Alehouse-keeper, Victualler, Retailer or Seller of any of the Liquors aforesaid, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been proved by two Witnesses.

Where a Justice shall suspect that any Victualler sells Ale, &c. without Licence, he may summon him, and the Officer who surveys him, and examine such Officer upon Oath.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall make Information before any one Justice of the Peace, and shew probable Cause that he suspects that any Person sells Ale, Beer or other Liquors without a Licence from two Justices, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice to call such suspected Person before him, and also to summon any other Person or Persons as Evidence, to prove the Charge against such suspected Person; and if such Person so summoned shall refuse to appear, or when appearing shall refuse to be examined upon Oath, and give Evidence as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, rendering to him or them the Overplus, after Charges of the said Distress and Sale deducted, to be paid to the Overseers for the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Person or Persons so offending shall live.

Justice upon Information that any Person is reasonably suspected of selling Ale, &c. without Licence, is to summon the Party and Evidence.

Persons summoned not appearing, forfeit 10 l.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be disabled by Conviction to sell Ale, Beer, Cyder or Perry, such Person shall by the same Conviction be also disabled to sell any Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters, any Licence before obtained for that Purpose notwithstanding; and every Licence granted to the Person so convicted, to sell Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, Strong Waters, or any of them, from the Time of such Conviction shall be null and void; and every Person selling Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, Strong Waters, or any of them, during the Term of such Disability, shall be subject to all or such of the Penalties, as are respectively inflicted by Law for selling Ale, Beer, Cyder, Perry, Spirituous Liquors, Strong Waters, or any of them, by Retail without a Licence; and in all Prosecutions of such Offenders, a Certificate from the Clerk of the Peace (or Person acting as such) of any such Conviction, shall be legal Evidence; which Certificate such Clerk of the Peace or Person shall grant on Demand without Fee or Reward.

Persons disabled by Conviction to sell Ale, &c. disabled also from selling Spirituous Liquors, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Person so convicted of the Offence of selling Ale, Beer, or other Liquors, without a Licence from two Justices of the Peace, shall for every such first Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings; and for every such second Offence shall forfeit the Sum of four Pounds; and for every such third Offence shall forfeit the Sum of six Pounds; all which said respective Forfeitures shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every such Offender (rendering to him the Overplus, after Charges of the said Distress and Sale deducted) by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Justice convicting such Offender; and shall be paid one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Overseers of the Poor, for the Use of the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence was committed; and if no sufficient Distress shall be found, whereon to levy the said respective Forfeitures, then the said Justice of the Peace shall and may commit every such Offender so respectively convicted as aforesaid, to the Common Gaol, or other Prison, or House of Correction, within his Jurisdiction, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of one Month, for the first Offence; and for the second Offence, for the Space of two Months; and for the third Offence, until such Offender shall be discharged by Order of the Court of General Quarter-Sessions.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, which was to continue in Force for five Years, to be computed from the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and thirty-three, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by an Act made in the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, was further continued from the Expiration thereof for the further Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by an Act made in the nineteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, was further continued from the Expiration of the said last mentioned Term for the further Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-six. 6 Geo. 2. c. 13. continued to 24 June 1756. Farther continued by 1 Geo. 3. c. 9. 11 Geo. 2. c. 18. 19 Geo. 2. c. 23.

'VI. And whereas by an Act passed in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is enacted, That where any Salt or Rock Salt (the Duties whereof shall have been paid, or secured to be paid, according to the Direction of the former Laws relating to the said Duties on Salt) shall be shipped or laid on Board any Ship or Vessel in any Port, River or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or be carried Coastwise; and the said Salt or Rock Salt so shipped or laid on Board, shall happen to perish by the sinking of the Ship or Vessel on which the same shall be shipped or laid on Board, before the said Ship or Vessel shall go out of such Port or Place, and before the Exporter of such Salt shall be intitled to a Drawback or Allowance of the Duties thereof; that then and in such Case the Exporter or Proprietor of the said Salt or Rock Salt so perished shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division or Place, next to the Place where the said Salt or Rock Salt shall so perish, of the Loss of the Salt or Rock Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them; and upon producing the said Certificate to any of her Majesty's Collectors or Officers appointed to collect the said Duties on Salt, the said Collectors and Officers are thereby required to let the said Exporter or Proprietor buy the like Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt as is expressed in the said Certificate to be so perished, without paying to her Majesty any Duty of Excise for the same, in the same manner as if such Salt or Rock Salt had so perished, going Coastwise from one Port of England to another: And whereas by an Act made in the eighth Year of 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14. 8 Geo. 1. c. 4.

'of the Reign of his Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for taking off the Duty upon all Salt 'used in the curing of Red Herrings, and laying a proportionable Duty upon all Red Herrings consumed at Home 'only; and for ascertaining the Customs and Excise payable for the Sugar Houses in Scotland; and for making 'an Allowance for Salt lost in any Harbour or River of this Realm; and for the better securing the Duties 'on Salt delivered in Scotland, it is among other Things enacted, That the Owners of any Salt, which 'after due Payment of the Duty shall perish or be lost in any of the Ports or Harbours, or Rivers 'of this Realm, by Storms or Rages of the Tides from Sea, or otherwise, shall upon such Proofs 'made thereof in all Points, and in manner as is directed by the afore-mentioned Act of the second and 'third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, (that gives Relief in Cases of Salt lost by 'violent or stormy Weather at Sea) be intitled to such Certificate, and thereupon to such Right and Pri-'vilege, as any Owners of the like Salt lost at Sea in the like Case are intitled to by virtue of the said 'Act; which Privilege is to buy the like Quantity of Salt as is expressed in the Certificate to be lost, with-'out paying to his Majesty any Duty of Excise for the same: And whereas the Exporters of Salt to foreign 'Parts do give Bond for the Duty of the same, which Bond is discharged by a Debenture upon the Expor-'tation thereof, but in such Cases where the Salt is lost in carrying the same down the River in order to 'be shipt on Board the Vessel in which the same is to be exported, or lost in the Port after the same is ship-'ped, and before the Exporter is or can be intitled to a Debenture, the Exporter or Owner of the Salt 'so lost, upon Proof thereof in manner as directed by the afore recited Acts, obtains a Certificate of such 'Proof being made, which Certificate intitles him by the said Acts to buy the like Quantity of Salt as is 'expressed therein to have been lost, without paying any Duty for the same, but cannot be applied to the 'Discharge of the Bond given for the Duty of the Salt lost, the Exporter therefore must discharge the Bond 'in Money without any Abatement, and when he has so done, he cannot export the Salt delivered him Duty-'free, so as to be intitled to a Drawback thereupon, but must sell it for home Consumption greatly to his 'Disadvantage, as the Dealers in Salt for home Consumption have a Discount on prompt Payment of the 'Duty, and an Allowance for Waste on Salt carried Coastwise:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt hath been lost or shall be lost in carrying the same down any River, in order to be shipt on Board the Vessel in which the same is to be exported, or hath been or shall be lost in the Port after the same is shipt, and before the Exporter is or can be intitled to a Debenture, and Proof thereof hath been or shall be made in all Points, and in manner as directed by the afore recited Acts, then and in every such Case the Certificate or Certificates for all such Salt or Rock Salt that hath been lost or shall be lost, shall and may be applied by the Collector of the Duties on Salt, for the Place where the Duty on such Salt or Rock Salt hath been or shall be secured to be paid, to discharge and vacate the Security given or to be given for the Duty of so much Salt as shall appear by such Certificate to have been lost; any Thing in the said in part recited Acts, or any other Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Certificate for Salt lost, to vacate the Security given for Payment of the Duty.

'VII. And whereas by an Act passed in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen 'Anne, intituled, An Act for laying further Duties on Low Wines; and for preventing the Damage to her Ma-'jesty's Revenue by Importation of foreign-cut Whalebone; and for making some Provisions as to the Stamp 'Duties, and the Duties on Births, Burials and Marriages, and the Salt Duties, and touching Million Lot-'tery Tickets; and for enabling her Majesty to dispose of the Effects of William Kidd, a notorious Pirate, 'to the Use of Greenwich Hospital; and for appropriating the Publick Monies granted in this Session of Par-'liament; it is enacted, That the Exporter or Proprietor of Salt or Rock Salt which shall perish or be lost 'in the manner described in the said Act, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace at the 'General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division or Place from 'whence the same was so exported, of the Loss of such Salt so shipped or to be shipped, receive from 'the said Sessions a Certificate that such Proof was made before them; and upon producing the said Cer-'tificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or secured to be paid, 'such Security shall be discharged, and so much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, 'shall be repaid upon Demand by the said Officer without Fee or Reward, provided such Proof be made as 'aforesaid by two credible Witnesses within six Months after such Loss or Taking as aforesaid: And 'whereas the making such Proof as aforesaid within the Time limited by the said Act has, in many Cases, 'been found impracticable, by reason of the Shortness of the said Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Time for making such Proof as aforesaid, shall from and after the passing of this Act be enlarged to two Years; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Time for making Proof of Salt lost, in order to obtain a Certificate, enlarged to two Years.

'VIII. And whereas by an Act made in the twenty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for en-'forcing the Laws against the clandestine Importation of Soap, Candles and Starch, into this Kingdom, a 'Penalty of fifty Pounds is laid upon the Master, Mate or other Person taking the Charge or Command 'of any Ship or Vessel wherein any Candles, Soap or Starch, shall be brought or imported contrary to the 'said Act; and Power is given to the Commissioners of Excise and Justices of the Peace before whom any 'Informations for the Penalties imposed by the said Act shall be heard and determined, to mitigate the same 'where they shall see Cause, so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalty to less than one fourth Part 'thereof, over and above the Costs and Charges of the Officers, as well in making the Discovery as in the 'Prosecution of the same: And whereas the Masters or other Persons, having the Charge of Ships or Vessels, 'are liable to the Penalty inflicted by the said Act for importing Candles, Soap or Starch, otherwise than by 'the said Act is prescribed, although such Candles, Soap or Starch, were put on Board without the Knowledge 'or Privity of such Masters or other Persons aforesaid, by the Mariners serving on Board such Ships or Vessels; 'and it is reasonable that such Masters or other Persons should be indemnified against the Penalty to which 'they are by the said Act made liable for the Offences committed by the said Mariners;' Be it therefore enacted enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Information shall be brought against the Master, Mate or other Person, having the Charge of any Ship or Vessel, for Recovery of the Penalty inflicted by the said Act for importing Candles, Soap, or Starch, otherwise than by the said Act is prescribed; it shall be lawful for such Master, Mate or other Person, to stop and detain the Wages of the Mariners and Men serving on Board such Ship or Vessel, until such Information shall be heard and determined; and if upon the Hearing and Determination thereof it shall appear that such Candles, Soap or Starch, were put on Board such Ship or Vessel by any of the Mariners or Men serving therein, without the Knowledge or Privity of the Master, Mate or other Person, having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, it shall be lawful for such Master, Mate or other Person aforesaid, to keep and retain in his Hands so much of the Wages of the Mariners and Men serving on Board such Ship or Vessel, who shall be found guilty of or privy to such Offence, as will be sufficient to answer and satisfy the Penalty inflicted upon such Master, Mate or other Person aforesaid, who shall be and is hereby indemnified for so doing.

and upon Conviction to be applied in Payment of the Forfeiture.

IX. 'And whereas the Provision contained in an Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his 'present Majesty, for the due and regular Payment of the Bounties granted upon the Exportation of British-'made Sail Cloth has proved ineffectual;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Bounties due since the first of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty, (being the Commencement of the said Provision) and which shall hereafter become due on the Exportation of British-made Sail Cloth, instead of being paid in the manner in the said Act directed, shall be, and the same are hereby charged upon, and shall be paid out of such Parts of the Old Subsidy as are applicable to the Payment of Incidents.

The Acts for preventing the spreading of the Distemper amongst horned Cattle, viz. 19 Geo. 2. c. 5.

'WHEREAS the contagious Distemper amongst the horned Cattle still continues to rage in this 'Kingdom: And whereas the several Laws made to prevent the spreading of the said Distemper '(which have been found useful and beneficial) are near expiring;' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable his Majesty to make Rules, Orders and Regulations more effectually to prevent the spreading of the Distemper which now rages amongst the horned Cattle in this Kingdom, which was to continue in force for the Space of eight Months, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by an Act made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty was explained, amended and continued, and to be in force with the said last mentioned Act for the Space of eight Months, from the tenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and forty-six, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which said Acts, by an Act made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, were further continued until the twenty-fourth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which by an Act made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, were further continued until the twenty-fourth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and also several Clauses in the said Act made in the twenty-second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for amending, explaining and enforcing the said Acts made in the nineteenth and twentieth Years of his present Majesty's Reign; and for preventing the spreading of the Distemper amongst the horned Cattle; and for impowering his Majesty to prohibit the killing of Cow Calves; and which by an Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty were further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and also several Clauses in the said Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; and which by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty were further continued until the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred ond fifty-one, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and also several Clauses in the said Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for explaining and enforcing the said Acts; and which by an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty were further continued until the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and also several Clauses in the said Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for explaining and amending the said Acts, shall, except so much of an Act made in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to continue several Laws for preventing the spreading of the Distemper which now rages amongst the horned Cattle; and for impowering his Majesty to prohibit the killing of Cow Calves, as relates to the impowering Justices of the Peace at their respective General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to license any Person residing within their respective Counties, Ridings or Divisions to buy and sell Cattle, be, and the same are hereby further continued until the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

'II. And whereas by an Act made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction; it is enacted, That all Rogues, Vagabonds and incorrigible Rogues sent by Passes from one County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, into any other County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, shall be delivered to the Constable or other such Officer of the first Town, Parish or Place in the next County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, to be by him conveyed forward in such manner as by the said Act is directed; and that the Allowances to be made to the Constables and other such Officers for the conveying of such Rogues, Vagabonds and incorrigible Rogues, shall be paid by the High or Chief Constables, and that such High or Chief Constables shall be allowed the same by the Treasurer of the respective County, Riding, Liberty, Division, Corporation or Franchise, on his passing his Accounts: And whereas it frequently happens that the High or Chief Constables have not a Sum of Money in their Hands sufficient to answer the said Expences;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Rogues, Vagabonds and incorrigible Rogues sent by Passes from one County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, into any other County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, shall be delivered to the Constable or other such Officer of the first Town, Parish or Place in the next County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, and shall be by such Constable or other such Officer conveyed forward in the Manner by the said Act directed and prescribed, and not otherwise; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer of each County, Riding, Division, Corporation or Franchise, and he is hereby required to pay to such Constable or other Officer the Charges of conveying such Rogues, Vagabonds, and incorrigible Rogues, upon such Constable or other Officer producing to him the Certificate and such other Vouchers as are required by the said Act to be delivered to such High or Chief Constables; and the Sums so paid shall be allowed by the Justices of the Peace to such Treasurer in his Account, on his producing the Vouchers aforesaid, together with the Receipt of the said Constable; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

the Expences to be paid by the Treasurer of the County, and to be allowed in his Accounts.

'III. And whereas the Prison of the Marshalsea of the Court of King's Bench is in its present Condition 'unsafe for the Custody, and dangerous to the Health of the Prisoners, which Inconveniencies cannot be 'remedied, unless the said Prison be repaired or rebuilt: And whereas it will be necessary to have some 'proper and convenient Place or Places provided for the Reception of the Prisoners in the mean time, where'upon Doubts may arise concerning the Legality of the Imprisonment of such Prisoners in such other Place 'or Places;' Therefore to prevent such Doubts, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That until the said Prison shall be sufficiently repaired or rebuilt, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Marshal of the Marshalsea of the said Court of King's Bench for the Time being, to detain and keep the Prisoners committed or to be committed to his Custody, in such other proper and convenient Place or Places as shall from Time to Time be approved of for that Purpose by the said Court; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Marshal of the King's Bench may secure the Prisoners in any Place approved by the Court, until the Prison be repaired.

'IV. And whereas within the City of Cheſter the uſual and accuſtomed Time of the annual Meeting and Aſſembly of the Citizens of the ſaid City, for the Election of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Treaſurers, Coroners and Leavelookers of the ſame City, hath been on the Friday next after the Feaſt Day of Saint Dennis yearly: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for regulating the Commencement of the Year, and for correcting the Calendar now in Uſe) it was amongſt other Things enacted, That all Meetings and Aſſemblies of any Bodies Politick or Corporate, either for the Election of any Officers or Members thereof, or for any ſuch Officers entering upon the Execution of their reſpective Offices, or for any other Purpoſe whatſoever, which by any Law, Statute, Charter, Cuſtom or Uſage within this Kingdom were to be holden and kept on any fixed or certain Day of any Month, ſhould from and after the ſecond Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, be holden or kept upon, or according to the ſame reſpective Nominal Days and Times whereon or according to which the ſame were at the Time of making the ſaid Act to be holden: And whereas by the ſaid recited Act it was further enacted, That the holding and keeping of all Markets, Fairs and Marts, whether for the Sale of Goods or Cattle, or for the hiring of Servants, or for any other Purpoſe, which are either fixed to certain Nominal Days of the Month, or depending upon the Beginning or any certain Day of any Month, and all Courts incident or belonging to, or uſually holden or kept with any ſuch Fairs or Marts fixed to ſuch certain Times as aforeſaid, ſhould not, from the ſaid ſecond Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, be continued upon or according to the Nominal Days of the Month, or the Time of the Beginning of any Month, to be computed according to the new Calendar in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, but that from and after the ſaid ſecond Day of September all ſuch Markets, Fairs and Marts as aforeſaid, and all Courts incident or belonging thereto, ſhould be holden or kept upon, or according to the ſame Natural Days, upon or according to which the ſame ſhould have been ſo kept or holden, in caſe the ſaid recited Act had not been made; that is to ſay, eleven Days later than the ſame would have happened, according to the Nominal Days of the ſaid new Supputation of Time, by which the Commencement of each Month, and the Nominal Days thereof, are anticipated or brought forward, by the Space of eleven Days; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding: And whereas before the making of the ſaid recited Act, one of the annual Fairs within the ſaid City, commonly called Michaelmas Fair, was begun to be holden and kept yearly, on the twenty-ninth Day of September, and continued for ſeveral Days afterwards, and purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid recited Act, the ſame Fair will hereafter begin to be holden and kept on the tenth Day of October yearly, which is the Day next after the Feaſt of Saint Dennis, by which means the Friday next after the ſaid Feaſt will always hereafter happen, during the Time of holding and keeping the ſaid Fair; and therefore it would be very inconvenient to the Citizens of the ſaid City of Cheſter, if the annual Meeting and Aſſembly of the ſaid Citizens for the Election of the Mayor, and the aforeſaid other annual Officers of the ſaid City, ſhould continue to be holden on the Friday next after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Dennis:' For preventing whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the annual Meeting and Aſſembly of the ſaid Citizens for the Election of the Mayor and other the aforeſaid annual Officers of the ſaid City of Cheſter, ſhall not at any Time hereafter be holden on the Friday next after the ſaid Feaſt of Saint Dennis, but the ſame, and all annual Meetings and Aſſemblies for that Purpoſe, ſhall at all Times hereafter be holden in the uſual and accuſtomed Manner on the Friday next after the twentieth Day of October in every Year, and not before; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act of Parliament, or any Law, Statute, Charter, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act for confirming an Agreement entered into between the Company of Proprietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preſerving the Navigation of the River Dee, and Sir John Glynne Baronet, Lord of the Manor of Hawarden, and ſeveral Freeholders and Occupiers of Land within the ſaid Manor; and for explaining and amending three ſeveral Acts of Parliament of the ſixth, fourteenth and ſeventeenth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for recovering and preſerving the Navigation of the ſaid River Dee. P R.

5 Geo. 2. c. 30.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to recover and preſerve the Navigation of the River Dee in the County Palatine of Cheſter, reciting that the Sands, Soil and Ground, not being Graſs, commonly called The White Sands, from the City of Cheſter to the Sea, and lying between the County of Cheſter on the North Side, and the County of Flint on the South Side, were of great Breadth in moſt Places; and that the ſaid River not being navigable, was chiefly owing to the Breadth of the ſaid Sands, and to the ſhifting of the Channel from one Side thereof to the other, as the Winds and Tides varied; and that the ſaid Sand, Soil and Ground, commonly caled The White Sands, were not, nor was likely to be of any Advantage or Benefit to any Perſon whatſoever, unleſs the ſaid River was bounded in and made navigable by Sea Walls, Banks and Fences, which would require a very great Expence, as well to erect as to maintain and repair from Time to Time, as Occaſion ſhould require; but that yet nevertheleſs, if the ſaid Sands, Soil or Ground, commonly called The White Sands, were recovered from the Sea by Sea Walls, Banks and Fences as aforeſaid, and the Channel thereby confined to one certain Courſe, it would not only effectually make the ſaid River navigable, but that veſting the ſaid White Sands in the Undertakers would be a conſiderable Encouragement to the

'the undertaking thereof; Nathaniel Kinderly in the said Act named, his Heirs and Assigns, and such Person 'or Persons as he or they should nominate and appoint, were appointed Undertakers of the said Navigation, 'and authorized and impowered at their own Cost and Charges to make and keep the said River Dee navi-'gable from the Sea to a certain Point within the Liberties of the City of Chester, called Wilcox Point, in 'such manner, that there should be sixteen Foot Water in every Part of the said River, at a moderate 'Spring Tide, for Ships and Vessels to come and go to and from the said City; and as a Recompence for 'the same, certain Rates of Tonnage were on the Terms therein mentioned, granted by the said Act to the 'said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, Assigns or Nominees; and as a further Recompence for the Expence 'which the said Undertakers should be at in making the said River navigable, certain Lands, Marshes and 'Salt Grass, and other Lands therein mentioned were, so soon as the said River should be made navigable, 'vested in the said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, Assigns or Nominees for ever, to the Use of the said 'Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, Assigns or Nominees for ever, under the Provisoes and Conditions in the 'said Acts mentioned: And whereas the said Nathaniel Kinderly, and his Assigns or Nominees, Undertakers 'of the said Navigation, began the said Undertaking, and made a new Channel for the said River Dee, 'through the adjacent Sands and Marshes near ten Miles in Length; and the said River was in the Month 'of April one thousand seven hundred and thirty-seven turned into the said new Channel, and hath ever 'since continued to run through the same; and ever since that Time, Ships and Vessels of considerable 'Burthen have sailed and navigated through the said new Channel up to the said Point called Wilcox Point, 'and the said Undertakers did, before the twenty-first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and forty, 'finish the said Undertaking in making the said River navigable, according to the Intent and true Meaning 'of the said recited Act of the sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign: And whereas by one other Act of Par-'liament made in the fourteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for incorporating the Under- 14 Geo. 2. c. 8.
'takers of the Navigation of the River Dee; it was amongst other Things enacted, That the several Persons 'therein named Proprietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preserving the Navigation of the said 'River Dee, and the Representatives of such of the Subscribers to the Indenture or Deeds Poll therein 'mentioned as were dead, their several and respective Successors, Heirs and Assigns, should be erected into 'one Company for the Purposes aforesaid, and be incorporated by the Name of The Company of Pro-'prietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preserving the Navigation of the River Dee, and have Power 'to do all such Acts as the said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, Assigns or Nominees might have done, or 'were impowered to do by virtue of the said Act of the sixth Year of his present Majesty, and to take and 'receive all such Duties, Tonnage Dues and Payments whatsoever, as the said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, 'Assigns or Nominees were impowered to do by the said Act, and to embank, inclose, improve and apply 'to the Use of the said Company the White Sand, Soil and Ground, other Lands whatsoever by the 'said Act vested in the said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, Assigns and Nominees, upon the Terms and 'Conditions in the said Act mentioned, in the same Manner as the said Nathaniel Kinderly, his Heirs, 'Assigns or Nominees might have done, subject to the Limitations, Conditions and Restrictions in the said 'Act mentioned: And whereas the Tonnage Rates and Duties appointed to be paid by the said Act of 'Parliament of the sixth Year of his present Majesty, being by Experience found to be too high, and to 'be a Discouragement to the Trade of the said City of Chester, by one other Act of Parliament made in 'the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act 17 Geo. 2. c. 28.
'passed in the sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to recover and preserve the Naviga-'tion of the River Dee in the County Palatine of Chester, and another Act passed in the fourteenth Year of 'his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for incorporating the Undertakers of the Navigation of the 'River Dee; and for repealing the Tonnage Rates payable to the said Undertakers; and for granting to them 'other Tonnage and Keelage Rates in lieu thereof; and for other Purposes therein mentioned; the said Tonnage 'Rates payable to the said Undertakers were repealed, and new Rates granted and appointed to be paid to 'them in lieu thereof, and it was by the same Act of the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign 'further provided and enacted, That nothing therein, or in the said Acts of the sixth and fourteenth Years 'of his present Majesty's Reign, or either of them contained, should extend or be deemed, or construed 'to extend to hinder or restrain Sir John Glynne Baronet, Lord of the Manor of Hawarden in the County 'of Flint, his Heirs or Assigns, or any other of the Proprietors of Lands, Grounds or Salt Marshes within 'the said Manor of Hawarden, or any other Person or Persons having or been intitled to Right of Com-'mon thereon, their Heirs or Assigns, from having, using or enjoying the Lands, Grounds or Salt Marshes 'lying on either Side of the Banks and Forelands of the said new Channel made by the said Undertakers, 'which were greensword or grassed over at the Time of passing the said Act of the sixth Year of his Ma-'jesty's Reign, and not vested in the said Nathaniel Kinderley, his Heirs or Assigns or Nominees, or in the 'said Company of Proprietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preserving the Navigation of the 'River Dee, by virtue of the aforesaid Acts of the sixth and fourteenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, 'or of that Act, or from taking all the Rents, Issues and Profits thereof, or from having and enjoying such 'Right of Common as aforesaid thereon, and all the Rights, Liberties and Privileges thereto belonging, 'according to his and their respective Estate, Right, Title or Interest therein, in such Manner and with 'the like Benefit and Advantage, as he or they could, might or ought to have had or done, in case that or 'the said before-mentioned Acts had never been made, so as such Enjoyments, Rights, Liberties and Pri-'vileges did not infringe upon, or derogate from the Powers given to the said Undertakers, for completing 'and preserving the said Navigation, and recovering from the Sea the said White Sands by that Act, or 'by the said Act of the sixth Year of his present Majesty: And whereas since the making of the said last-'mentioned Act several Doubts and Differences have arisen between the said Company and the said Sir

'John Glynne, and ſeveral other of the Proprietors of Lands, and Perſons intitled to Common in the Salt 'Marſhes within the ſaid Manor of Hawarden, touching the Extent of the Lands, Grounds or Salt Marſhes 'lying on the North Side of the ſaid new Channel made by the ſaid Undertakers, which were greenſword 'or graſſed over at the Time of paſſing the ſaid Act of the ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, and not veſted 'in the ſaid Company, and ſeveral Suits were in or about the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-'ſeven commenced, and are ſtill depending between the ſaid Parties in relation thereto: And whereas in 'order to put an end to all Diſputes that have or otherwiſe might ariſe between the ſaid Company and the 'ſaid Sir John Glynne, and the Freeholders and other Perſons intitled to Common within the ſaid Manor, 'in relation to the Premiſſes, and to any Damages which have been or may be occaſioned to all or any 'Part of the Lands or Marſhes within the ſaid Manor on the South Side of the ſaid new Channel, by reaſon 'of the ſaid Works of Navigation, Articles of Agreement have been lately made and entered into, by and 'between the ſaid Company of Proprietors of the Undertaking for recovering and preſerving the Naviga-'tion of the River Dee, of the one Part, and the ſaid Sir John Glynne of Hawarden in the County of Flint, 'Baronet, Lord of the Manor of Hawarden, and the ſeveral other Perſons whoſe Hands and Seals are there-'unto ſubſcribed, Freeholders and Occupiers of Land, within the ſaid Manor, on behalf of themſelves and 'all other Perſons having a Right of Commoning upon the Waſte Lands, Commons and Salt Marſhes, 'within the ſaid Manor, of the other Part, in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to ſay, Articles 'of Agreement, &c. And whereas the executing and effecting the ſaid Agreement would be for the mutual 'Benefit of the ſaid Company, and of all Perſons intereſted in, or intitled unto, the ſaid Lands, Grounds, 'or Salt Marſhes within the ſaid Manor, or to the Right of Common therein, and the great Expences 'which would neceſſarily attend the further Proſecution of the Suits that have ariſen, and are ſtill depend-'ing between the Parties, will thereby be prevented; but ſuch Agreement cannot be rendered effectual to 'anſwer the Intention of the Parties, without the Aid and Authority of an Act of Parliament;' May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, &c.

"The recited Articles of Agreement confirmed. CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for erecting ſeveral Publick Buildings in the City of Edinburgh, and to impower the Truſtees therein mentioned to purchaſe Lands for that Purpoſe; and alſo for widening and enlarging the Streets of the ſaid City, and certain Avenues leading thereunto.

'WHEREAS the City of Edinburgh, the Metropolis of that Part of the United Kingdom called 'Scotland, is by reaſon of its Situation, and the Steepneſs of the Aſcent, and by the narrow and 'confined Avenues leading to the principal Street thereof, rendered difficult of Acceſs, and the Publick 'hath not hitherto been poſſeſſed of proper Areas, either for erecting Buildings, or opening Streets and 'Places of Reſort, as well for the Convenience as Ornament of the ſaid City: And whereas at preſent 'there is no convenient Repoſitory ſufficient to contain the publick Archives, Land Rights, and other 'valuable Securities, tranſmitted by the ſeveral Clerks to the Office under the Care and Keeping of the 'Lord Clerk Regiſter: And whereas many of the Offices of the ſeveral Clerks of the Supreme Courts of 'Judicatory are ſcattered in different Parts of the City, to the great Interruption of Buſineſs; and the 'Writings under their Cuſtody are expoſed to the Danger of Fire and other Accidents: And whereas there 'is no publick Place or Exchange for the Reſort of Merchants or Men of Buſineſs, nor any Town Houſe, 'Hall or Borough Room, for the annual Convention of the Boroughs of Scotland, nor Council Chamber 'for the Magiſtrates, fit for the daily Diſcharge of publick Buſineſs, nor any Hall for the Clerks of his 'Majeſty's Signet, or convenient Room for the Library belonging to the Faculty of Advocates: And 'whereas it will be advantageous not only to the City of Edinburgh, but to that Part of the United King-'dom called Scotland, and to the Publick in general, that a more commodious Place be provided for keep-'ing the publick Regiſters of that Part of the United Kingdom, and a Hall built for the Clerks to his 'Majeſty's Signet, and that Offices for the Director of the Chancery, the Keepers of the Records of the 'Great

'Great Seal, the Privy Seal and Signet, the Clerks of Session of Justiciary and Commission for Plantation 'of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, as also Offices for the accommodating the Court of Exchequer, the 'General Register of Seisins, Hornings and Inhibitions, and for the Clerks of the High Court of Admi- 'ralty, and Commissaries of Edinburgh, be provided contiguous to the House commonly called the Parlia- 'ment House, where the Courts of Session and Exchequer do now sit; and also that a proper House be 'prepared for the Advocates Library, a large Hall or Borrow Room for the Use of the Borrows of Scot- 'land, and other publick Meetings, with a Council Chamber for the Use of the Magistrates; and that an 'Exchange for the Merchants and Men of Business be also provided near the Center of the City, and con- 'venient Communications opened to the High Street thereof, from the North, South and West: And 'whereas the Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh have purchased several decayed Houses 'adjacent to the House commonly called the Parliament House, where the Courts of Session and Exche- 'quer do now sit, with a View of providing a proper Repository for the publick Records, and for the 'Advocates Library, and proper Offices for the Director of the Chancery, the Keepers of the Great Seal, 'Privy Seal and Signet, and Clerks aforesaid, and they have also purchased several decayed Houses in a 'publick Place most proper for an Exchange, and have also purchased several Houses in order to make 'the Passage to the High Street of the City, from the Fields on the North and South, more commodious: 'And whereas several Noblemen, many of the Members of the College of Justice, and other Gentlemen, 'and also the most considerable of the Incorporations of Edinburgh, sensible of the great Benefit that would 'accrue to the Publick by carrying on the said Works, and at the same Time being sensible, that the City 'of Edinburgh is unable out of its proper Funds to undertake and accomplish the same, have for carrying 'on the said Design, under the Direction herein after-mentioned, agreed to contribute certain Sums of 'Money, and they and others may hereafter be induced to subscribe further Sums of Money for that Pur- 'pose, but such intended Improvements of the City cannot be carried into Execution without the Autho- 'rity of Parliament;' Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, in Behalf of themselves and the Community of the said City, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the most Noble Archibald Duke of Argyle, the most Noble James Duke of Athole, the most Honourable John Marquis of Tweddale, the Right Honourable James Earl of Morton, the Right Honourable John Earl of Hopeton, the Right Honourable Charles Areskine, Lord Justice Clerk; the Honourable Andrew Fletcher of Milton, one of the Senators of the College of Justice; Sir Alexander Dick of Preston Field Baronet, James Dewar of Vogrie Esquire, Master John Forrest of West Grange, the Right Honourable Robert Dundas, Lord President of the Court of Session; 'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled, An Act for the rating and levying of the Charges for conveying Malefactors and Offenders to the Gaol; every Offender so to be conveyed shall bear the Charges of himself, and of those who convey him; and if he refuse so to do, his Goods within the same County may be distrained and sold to satisfy the same; and if he hath no Goods, the Constable, Churchwardens and other Inhabitants of the Parish where he was taken, shall make a Tax on every Inhabitant thereof to pay the said Charges: And whereas the taxing

'the

' the Parish where such Offender was taken to pay such Charges, is a great Discouragement to Parishes to ' take Offenders; and it is also found by Experience to be very difficult to make a Rate on the Inhabitants ' to raise such Tax, whereby Constables and others are often kept out of their Money by them advanced ' for the Service of the Publick, and sometimes lose the same, to their very great Injury and Vexation;' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four, when any Person, not having Goods or Money within the County where he is taken, sufficient to bear the Charges of himself, and of those who convey him, is committed to Gaol or the House of Correction by Warrant from any Justice or Justices of the Peace, then, on Application by any Constable or other Officer who conveyed him, to any Justice of the Peace for the same County or Place, shall upon Oath examine into and ascertain the reasonable Expences to be allowed such Constable or other Officer, and shall forthwith, without Fee or Reward, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, order the Treasurer of the County or Place to pay the same, which the said Treasurer is hereby required to do, as soon as he receives such Warrant; and any Sum so paid shall be allowed in his Accounts.

Part of the Act of 3 Jac. 1. c. 10. relating to taxing Parishes for conveying Offenders to Gaol, repealed.

' III. And whereas the Expence as well as Loss of Time in attending Courts of Justice, is a Discou- ' ragement to the poorer Sort to appear as Witnesses against Offenders, who thereby escape the publick ' Justice, and the Punishment due to their Crimes;' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, when any poor Person shall appear on Recognizance in any Court to give Evidence against another accused of any Grand or Petit Larceny, or other Felony, it shall and may be in the Power of the Court, at the Prayer and on the Oath of such Person, and on Consideration of his Circumstances, in open Court to order the Treasurer of the County or Place in which the Offence shall have been committed, to pay unto such Person such Sum of Money, as to the said Court shall seem reasonable for his Time, Trouble and Expence; which Order the proper Officer of such Court is hereby directed and required to make out, and to deliver unto such Person, upon being paid for the same the Sum of six Pence, and no more; and such Treasurer is hereby authorized and required, upon Delivery of such Order, forthwith to pay to such Person, or other Person authorized to receive the same, such Sum of Money as aforesaid, and shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

15 Car. 2. c. 17. 20 Car. 2. c. 8. Law of Sewers in 6 Car. 1.
'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the draining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, reciting, That Francis Earl of Bedford, according to a Law of Sewers made at King's Lynn in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the First, had undertaken the draining of the said Great Level therein mentioned to be situate within the Counties of Northampton, Norfolk, Suffolk, Lincoln, Cambridge and Huntingdon, and the Isle of Ely, and therein particularly bounded and described; and that he was to have for his Recompence ninety-five thousand Acres of the Ground within the said Level, with convenient Highways and Passages to the same, and the new River, Cuts and Drains, to be made by the said Earl and his Assigns, and the Banks of the same, and the Forelands in the Inside of the said Banks, not to exceed sixty Foot in Breadth; and that William Earl of Bedford, Son and Heir of the said Earl Francis, with divers of his Adventurers and Participants, had proceeded in the compleating and finishing the said Works; but that the same could not be preserved without constant Care, great Charge, and orderly Government; it was therefore (amongst other Things) enacted, That the said William Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the said Earl Francis, and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Assigns, in such manner as therein after is contained, should be a Body Politick and Corporate in Deed and Name, and have Succession for ever, by the Name of The Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, with Power to lay and levy Taxes upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres only, for Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level, and do all other Things in order to the Support, Maintenance and Preservation of the said Great Level and Works made, and to be made, in such manner as therein is mentioned; and taking Notice, that by the said Law of Sewers twelve thousand Acres, Parcel of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, were designed and intended to his said late Majesty King Charles the First, and had been set forth and allotted by Bounds in Severalty; and that his said late Majesty had granted two thousand Acres, Part thereof, to Jerome Earl of Portland, his Heirs and Assigns; and that the said Earl had sold about one thousand five hundred Acres, Part of the said two thousand Acres, to several Persons, and had conveyed the remaining five hundred Acres to Benjamin Weston Esquire, on several Trusts; it was thereby further enacted, that the said two thousand Acres, or such other Lands of equal Value, as should be set forth in Exchange of the same, should be and were thereby vested, settled, and established in the said several Persons, their Heirs and Assigns respectively, to whom the said Earl of Portland had conveyed the same, to be held of the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the Manor of East Greenwich, by Fealty only, in free and common Socage, subject nevertheless with the Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, in equal Proportion to all Taxes and Charges

'necessary

'necessary and conducing to the Preservation of the said Great Level from drowning; and it was thereby 'further enacted, That the eighty-three thousand Acres, Remainder of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, 'with the said Ways, Passages, new Rivers, Cuts, Drains, Banks and Forelands, over and above the said 'ten thousand Acres, Residue of the said twelve thousand Acres, which were allotted in Severalty, and of 'which his said late Majesty was in Possession, were thereby vested and settled in the said Governor, Bailiffs 'and Commonalty, and their Successors, in Trust for the said William Earl of Bedford, and the Adven-'turers and Participants of the said Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and 'Assigns, in such manner as is therein after limited and provided, and according to such Parts and Propor-'tions as they respectively then held and enjoyed, or by virtue of the said Act ought to hold and enjoy, 'subject and liable likewise to the Payment of all Taxes and Charges as aforesaid, to be held of the King's 'Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of the Manor of East Greenwich, by Fealty, in free and common 'Socage; and the said ten thousand Acres were thereby vested in his then present Majesty, and his Assigns, 'subject and liable with the Residue of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, to the same Taxes and Charges 'before specified; and it is thereby further enacted, That the said Governor, Bailiffs and Conservators of 'the said Corporation for the Time being, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor or 'Bailiffs, or their Successors, or any of them, to be two, for Maintenance and Preservation of the said 'Great Level, by convenient Outfalls to the Sea, should for ever thereafter be, and were thereby made 'and constituted Commissioners of Sewers for and of the said Great Level of the Fens; and the said Go-'vernor, Bailiffs and Conservators, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor or Bailiffs, 'and their Successors, or any of them, to be two, are thereby enabled and impowered from thenceforth, 'to use and exercise the Power and Authority of Commissioners of Sewers, within the said Great Level of 'the Fens, and of the Works made and to be made without the said Great Level, for conveying the Wa-'ters of the said Great Level, by convenient Outfalls to the Sea, in such Manner, and with such other 'Powers, Jurisdictions and Authorities, as are therein mentioned and contained: And whereas by another 'Act of Parliament made and passed in the twentieth Year of his said late Majesty King Charles the Second, 20 Car. 2. c. 8. 'intituled, An Act for the taking and assessing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the 'Fens, after reciting in Part the last recited Act, and that the Way therein mentioned of raising Draining-'taxes upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, by an equal Acre-rate hath been found inconvenient, it 'was enacted, That all Taxes thereafter to be set and imposed for the Maintenance and Preservation of 'the said Great Level, should be from Time to Time assessed and taxed by the said Governor, Bailiffs and 'Conservators, or their Successors, or any five or more of them, whereof the said Governor and Bailiffs 'for the Time being, or any of them, to be two, upon the said eighty-three thousand Acres, Part and 'Parcel of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, by a gradual Acre-tax, of different Sorts and Values of 'Lands, to be received, paid and levied, by such Ways and Means as in the said recited Act are provided; 'and that the said eighty-three thousand Acres, for raising Taxes for Support and Maintenance of the 'Great Level, should not be rated or assessed otherwise or in any other manner than according to a gradual 'Acre-tax of different Sorts and Degrees, and according to the respective Values and Rates thereby set and 'rated, and to be set and rated, as is therein after appointed: And it was thereby further enacted, That 'when and so often as the Sum of six thousand one hundred and ten Pounds seven Shillings and one Penny 'Half-penny should be taxed and assessed upon the said ninety-five thousand Acres, that then the said twelve 'thousand Acres should be rated and assessed at fifteen Pence the Acre, and according to that Proportion, 'for the raising of any greater or lesser Sum than six thousand one hundred and ten Pounds seven Shillings 'and one Penny Half-penny, to be received, paid and levied, together with Penalties, in such and the like 'manner as the Taxes set and imposed, or to be set and imposed, upon the said eighty-three thousand 'Acres, are thereby provided for to be received, paid and levied: And to the end that the said eighty-'three thousand Acres might be more equally rated by a gradual Acre-tax, not under the Number of seven 'Sorts, it was thereby further enacted, That certain Persons in the same Act named, or any three or more 'of them, were thereby constituted and appointed to be Surveyors and Valuers of the said eighty-three 'thousand Acres, and were, within the Time therein limited, to digest the said eighty-three thousand 'Acres into such Number of Sorts or Degrees of Land, not under the Number of seven Sorts and Degrees, 'and to rate and tax such Degrees, and digest the same into Schedules in Writing, and make Returns thereof, 'upon their Oaths, into the Fen-office, in such manner as in and by the said Act is mentioned and directed: 'And whereas the several Persons by the said last recited Act appointed to be Surveyors or Valuers, valued 'and set out the said eighty-three thousand Acres, according to the Directions thereby given, into eleven 'different Sorts or Degrees of Land, to be rated and taxed in manner following; that is to say, For a Single 'Tax, four Pence per Acre on the first Sort of Land; eight Pence per Acre on the second Sort; and so 'increasing four Pence upon every Sort; the eleventh Sort to be taxed at three Shillings and eight Pence: 'And all greater or less Sums which the said Corporation should have occasion to raise, were to be rated 'and assessed in the like Proportions; which Valuations of the said Surveyors were returned by them into 'the Fen-office, as by the said last-mentioned Act was directed; and the said eighty-three thousand Acres 'have always since been taxed according to the Degrees and Proportions thereby set out and allotted, calling 'a Tax of four Pence on the first Sort of Land, and increasing on the ten other Sorts in manner aforesaid, 'a single Tax; five Pence a Tax and Quarter; six Pence a Tax and Half; seven Pence a Tax and three 'Quarters; and eight Pence a Double Tax: And whereas at a Court of the said Corporation, held the 'tenth Day of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, the said Corporation declared that the 'said Great Level should be distinguished by the several Names of the North Level, Middle Level, and South 'Level; and that all that Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, which lay between the North Side 'of Moreton's Leame, and the South Side of Welland River, should be accounted that Part of the ninety-

Court of Corporation held 10 March 1697.

Debt of the Corporation at Lady-Day 1728.

'five thousand Acres lying within the North Level: And whereas the said Corporation, in order to support and preserve the several Works for draining the said Great Level, were obliged to borrow several Sums of Money on Bonds, under their Common Seal; and by that means, at Lady-Day one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, had contracted Debts, amounting in the Whole to the principal Sum of seventeen thousand one hundred and fifty Pounds; and some new Works being necessary for better draining the said North Level, Part of the said Great Level, by Indenture bearing Date the twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and made, or mentioned to be made, between the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Company of Conservators of the said Great Level of the Fens, of the one Part, and the most Noble William Duke of Devonshire, Guardian of the most Noble Wriothesly then Duke of Bedford, a Minor, and the Right Honourable Henry then Earl of Lincoln, of the other Part; after reciting the said Act of the fifteenth Year of his late Majesty King Charles the Second; and that the said Great Level of the Fens was then distinguished by the several Names of the North Level, the Middle Level, and the South Level; and that such Part of the said Great Level, as was distinguished by the Name of the North Level, did contain about forty thousand Acres of Land, of which there were about eleven thousand six hundred Acres of Land, subject to the said Taxes, and that the said Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln were Owners or Proprietors of great Part thereof; and further reciting, That the said Duke of Devonshire, as Guardian of the said Duke of Bedford, and the said Earl of Lincoln, for the Preservation of the respective Estates of the said Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln, in the said North Level, did in the then last Summer actually lay out and expend the Sum of three thousand four hundred Pounds, the Monies of the said Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln, in proportion to their said respective Estates, in regaining and keeping open the Outfall for the Waters of the said North Level to Sea, and in doing several other necessary and material Works, which had tended greatly towards the Draining and Preservation of all the Estates in the said North Level; but by reason of the many and frequent Floods which had of late Years happened, and the Insufficiency of the Banks and Works of the said North Level to resist the same, and particularly by reason of the Weakness and Lowness of the Bank on the North Side Moreton's Leame Wash, next the said North Level, the greatest Part of the Lands within the said Level had then lately been, and were subject to be drowned, so that little or no Profit could be made thereof, nor could the said North Level be effectually drained or secured for the future, unless the said North Bank was to be enlarged and strengthened; and therefore the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty had resolved to make a Canal in the said Wash, and other Works there, for strengthening and enlarging the said North Bank, the Charge of all which would amount at least to six thousand six hundred Pounds; and further reciting, That the said Duke of Devonshire, on the said Duke of Bedford's Behalf, and with his Consent, and the said Earl of Lincoln, at the Request of the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, had agreed to advance the said six thousand six hundred Pounds, for the Purposes aforesaid, in proportion to their said respective Estates in the said North Level; and that the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty had agreed that the Taxes, Revenues, and Rents, annually laid and arising upon and out of the Lands in the said North Level only, should be made a Security for Repayment as well of the said three thousand four hundred Pounds, then already laid out, as for the said six thousand six hundred Pounds to be laid out, and Interest at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum; and were desirous, and had proposed, that the said Duke of Devonshire, and Earl of Lincoln, should have not only the Direction and Disposal of the said six thousand six hundred Pounds, in making the said Canal and other new Works, but also that the said Duke of Devonshire, and Earl of Lincoln, during the Minority of the said Duke of Bedford, and afterwards the said Duke of Bedford, and Earl of Lincoln, their respective Heirs and Assigns, should have the Direction, Disposal, and Management of the said Taxes, Revenues, and Rents of the said North Level, to be by them employed and disposed in and about the repairing and maintaining the Works of the said North Level, and making and supporting such other Works as should be necessary or conducing to the effectual draining, securing, and preserving of the said North Level; and for and towards the Payment of the said Principal Sums of three thousand four hundred Pounds, and six thousand six hundred Pounds, with Interest as aforesaid, until the said Principal Sums of three thousand four hundred Pounds, and six thousand six hundred Pounds, and Interest, should be fully paid and satisfied; it is witnessed, That in consideration of the Premisses, and for securing the Repayment of the said several Sums of three thousand four hundred Pounds, and six thousand six hundred Pounds, and Interest as aforesaid; and for the better enabling the said Dukes of Devonshire and Bedford, and the said Earl of Lincoln, to complete their good Designs of effectually draining, securing, and preserving the said North Level, by making the said Canal and other Works, which the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty were sensible would be of great Benefit and Advantage to all the Estates in the same Level; they the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, for themselves and their Successors, did covenant and agree, to and with the said Dukes of Devonshire and Bedford, and the said Earl of Lincoln respectively, and their respective Heirs and Assigns, that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Duke of Devonshire, and Earl of Lincoln, their Agents or Servants, duly authorized, during the Minority of the said Duke of Bedford, and after the said Duke of Bedford should have attained his Age of twenty-one Years, and should have confirmed that Agreement, for the said Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln, their respective Heirs and Assigns, their Agents or Servants, duly authorized, without the Interruption or Denial of the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, or their Successors, to ask for and demand, have, receive, and take of and from the Receiver General for the Time being of the said Corporation yearly, and every Year, as the same should become due, and be paid to the said Receiver General, so much and such Part of the said Taxes, to be annually laid on the said ninety-five thousand Acres, as should be the Share and Proportion of the Lands within the said North Level liable thereto, together with all other the Rents and Revenues

'what-

'whatsoever of the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, in the said North Level, including the Share
'and Proportion of the Taxes laid upon the Lands within the said North Level for that present Year, and
'the said Rents and Revenues due and payable for the same Time; and it was thereby declared and agreed, 'That the yearly Sum of one hundred Pounds, payable by the Heirs or Assigns of Sir Charles Orby deceased,
'to the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and their Successors, should be esteemed and taken as 'Part of the said Revenue arising within the said North Level; and the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Com-
'monalty did thereby authorize, impower, and require the said Receiver General for the Time being, to 'pay yearly, and every Year, as the same should become due and be paid to him, all the said Taxes, Rents,
'and Revenues of the said North Level, unto the said Dukes of Devonshire and Bedford, and Earl of Lin- 'coln respectively, their respective Heirs and Assigns, or their Servants or Agents, without any further or 'other Warrant to be had from the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty for that Purpose: Provided,
'That the said Receiver General for the Time being should retain and keep so much of the said Taxes,
'Rents, and Revenues of the said North Level as should be sufficient to satisfy and discharge the yearly
'Interest of the Principal Sum of two thousand Pounds, thentofore taken up upon the Common Seal
'of the said Corporation for the Service of the said Level, until the Principal Sum of two thousand Pounds
'should be paid off and discharged: And it was thereby declared and agreed, That the said Taxes, Rents,
'and Revenues, so to be paid to the said Dukes of Devonshire and Bedford, and Earl of Lincoln respectively,
'their Heirs or Assigns, should be retained, employed, applied, and disposed of, in the first Place, for
'repairing and maintaining all the Works of the said North Level, and making and supporting such other 'Works as should be necessary or conducing to the effectual draining and Preservation of the same Level,
'and then for paying and satisfying to the said Dukes of Devonshire and Bedford, and Earl of Lincoln, their 'respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to their respective Proportions and Shares,
'Interest after the Rate of four Pound per Centum per Annum, for the said several Sums of three thousand
'four hundred Pounds, and six thousand six hundred Pounds; and then to take, retain, and keep the Sur'plus Money for and towards paying off and sinking the said Sums of three thousand four hundred Pounds,
'and six thousand six hundred Pounds, in such Proportions, and by such Payments, as should be reasonable
'and convenient, until the same should be fully paid off and satisfied: And whereas the said Duke of Bed-
'ford, or the said Duke of Devonshire as his Guardian, and the said Earl of Lincoln, laid out and expended
'the said Sum of six thousand six hundred Pounds, in pursuance of the said Agreement, in the Works
'therein mentioned, and by virtue of, and under the said Agreement, the said Duke of Bedford and Earl of 'Lincoln, and their Representatives, have ever since continued in the Receipt of the Taxes, Rents, and
'Revenues of the said North Level; but have been obliged to apply the greatest Part thereof for and towards
'the several Works for draining and preserving the said North Level; so that at Lady-Day one thousand
'seven hundred and fifty-three, the Sum of eighteen thousand nine hundred and thirteen Pounds eleven
'Shillings and nine Pence, was due for Principal and Interest of the said several Sums of three thousand
'four hundred Pounds and six thousand six hundred Pounds; five sixth Parts whereof is due and owing to 'the most Noble John now Duke of Bedford, as Executor of the last Will of the said Wriothesley late Duke
'of Bedford; and the remaining sixth Part thereof is due and owing to the Right Honourable Henry Earl 'of Lincoln, as Administrator of the said Henry late Earl of Lincoln: And whereas the Sum of two thou'sand eight hundred and fifty Pounds, Part of the Debt owing by the said Corporation at Lady-Day one 'thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, was due and owing to the said Wriothesley late Duke of Bed-
'ford, who afterwards, in and by his last Will and Testament, forgave and discharged the same, which 'reduced the Debt contracted by the said Corporation, before the said Year one thousand seven hundred 'and twenty-eight, to fourteen thousand three hundred Pounds: And whereas ever since the making and 'executing the said recited Agreement, the said Dukes of Bedford and Earls of Lincoln have supported and 'maintained the Works, Banks, and Drains of the said North Level, and the said Corporation have not 'been at any Charge or Expence in or about the same; but the said Corporation have since the said Year
'one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, borrowed several large Sums of Money on Bonds, under 'their Common Seal, to the Amount in the Whole of fifteen thousand nine hundred and forty Pounds;
'all which has been by them laid out and expended in and about the said Middle and South Levels, and for 'supporting and preserving the Banks, Drains, and Works thereof, so that the said Corporation is now
'indebted in the several Sums of Money following; that is to say, in the said Sum of fourteen thousand
'three hundred Pounds, contracted before the said Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, for
'or on account of the Whole of the said Great Level; the said Sum of eighteen thousand nine hundred
'and thirteen Pounds eleven Shillings and nine Pence, contracted since the said Year one thousand seven 'hundred and twenty-eight, for or on account of and particularly charged upon the said North Level; and
'the said Sum of fifteen thousand nine hundred and forty Pounds, contracted since the said Year one thou'sand seven hundred and twenty-eight, for or on account of the said Middle and South Levels, amounting
'together to forty-nine thousand one hundred and fifty-three Pounds eleven Shillings and nine Pence: And
'whereas it has been found by Experience that the Taxes, Revenues, and Rents arising and payable to the 'said Corporation out of the said North Level are not near sufficient to pay off and discharge the said Debt
'particularly charged thereon, and to defray the Charges and Expences of maintaining, supporting, and
'keeping in Repair the several Works for draining thereof; and notwithstanding the greatest Part of the 'Revenues of the said North Level have ever since the said Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-
'eight been laid out in and about the same, the several Banks, Rivers, Sewers, and Works of the same 'Level are become so greatly decayed and ruinous, that great Part of the Lands in the same Level have 'lately been very frequently flooded, and unless some immediate Remedy be applied, will become entirely
'drowned, and of little or no Value: And whereas the Lands called Portsand, otherwise Great Portsand,

'Parcel of the Demesnes belonging to and lying within the Manor of Crowland in South Holland, in the 'County of Lincoln, herein after particularly bounded and described, are subject also to be frequently 'flooded, and cannot be effectually drained and preserved, without a large Expence: And whereas the said 'Lands called Portsand, otherwise Great Portsand, adjoin to the said North Level, on the North Part thereof, 'and lie convenient to be drained therewith, and it will be for the mutual Benefit and Advantage of the 'Proprietors or Owners thereof, and of the Proprietors or Owners of the Lands within the said North 'Level, to join in one common Drainage, and in order thereto, the Proprietors or Owners of the said 'Manor of Crowland, and Lands called Portsand, otherwise Great Portsand, and the Proprietors or Owners 'of the greatest Part of the Lands within the said North Level, are willing and desirous that a sufficient Sum 'of Money for the effectual draining of all the said Lands, shall be raised by a Tax upon all the said Lands, 'to be ordered, governed, and disposed of in such manner as herein after is mentioned; provided that the 'said North Level be discharged from the Debts of the said Corporation; and that all the Taxes, Rents, 'and Revenues which shall hereafter arise and become payable to the said Corporation, out of the said 'North Level, be applied, under the Direction of the said Corporation, for the Benefit of the said North 'Level only, in such manner as herein after is mentioned: And whereas the Taxes, Rents, and Revenues, 'arising and payable to the said Corporation, out of the said North Level, are about one eighth Part of 'the Taxes, Rents, and Revenues, arising and payable to the said Corporation, out of the Whole of the 'said Great Level of the Fens, and therefore the said North Level is subject and liable to raise and pay one 'eighth Part of the said Debt of fourteen thousand three hundred Pounds, which was contracted by the 'said Corporation before the said Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, on account of the 'Whole of the said Great Level of the Fens, and in order to raise Money to pay off and discharge the 'same, it has been proposed that so much of the Taxes charged on the Corporation Lands within the said 'North Level, by virtue of or under the said recited Act of the fifteenth of King Charles the Second, shall 'be sold in such manner as herein after is mentioned, as shall raise a sufficient Sum of Money for that Pur-'pose: And whereas the said John Duke of Bedford, and Henry Earl of Lincoln, being desirous to promote 'so good and beneficial an Undertaking, have consented and are willing to exonerate and discharge the said 'Corporation of and from the said Debt of eighteen thousand nine hundred and thirteen Pounds eleven 'Shillings and nine Pence, and to yield up and surrender all the Taxes, Rents, and Revenues of the said 'North Level, which they are intitled to receive, by virtue of and under the said recited Agreement, and 'to release and discharge all their Right, Title, and Interest in and to the same, on condition that the 'Taxes, Rents, and Revenues of the said Middle and South Levels, be for the future only chargeable with 'the Residue of the said Debt of fourteen thousand three hundred Pounds, contracted before the said Year 'one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, and with the said Debt of fifteen thousand nine hundred 'and forty Pounds contracted on account of the said Middle and South Levels, since the said Year one thou-'sand seven hundred and twenty-eight; and that the said North Level, and the Taxes, Rents, and Reve-'venues thereof, be fully and absolutely discharged of and from all the Debts of the said Corporation, and 'every Part thereof: And whereas at a Court of the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Com-'pany of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, held at the Fen-office, on Saturday the twenty-'fourth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, a Plan according to the said Propos'als, 'and for effecting and carrying the said Undertaking into Execution, in such manner as herein after is 'mentioned, was laid before the said Court, and the said Court thereupon came to the following Resolu-'tions, videlicet; that it appearing to the Board that the Debt due from this Corporation, in the Year one 'thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, was fourteen thousand three hundred Pounds; and that the 'Taxes upon all the three Levels, at a Tax and a Quarter, amount to six thousand three hundred and four-'teen Pounds three Shillings and eleven Pence Half-penny, of which the Tax arising from the North Level 'is seven hundred and seventy-seven Pounds three Shillings and four Pence Half-penny, being about one 'eighth Part, it is the Opinion of this Board, that if his Grace the Duke of Bedford and Lord Lincoln remit 'the Debt of about nineteen thousand Pounds, which is due to them under the Agreements made with them 'by this Corporation, in one thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight, for draining the North Level, and 'the Proprietors of the North Level will pay one thousand eight hundred Pounds, as their Proportion of 'the said Debt of fourteen thousand three hundred Pounds, it will be for the Interest of the other two 'Levels for this Corporation to consent that the Lands on the North Level be exonerated from the Payment 'of the Remainder of the said Debt, and the subsequent Debts of the Corporation, by the Act of Parlia-'ment intended to be applied for, for the better draining of that Level: And the remaining Part of the 'said Plan being read, the Board resolved, That the same did not in any wise appear to be prejudicial to 'either of the Levels belonging to the said Corporation, and therefore they did approve thereof: And 'whereas the said Corporation, and the Creditors of the said Corporation, and the Proprietors of the 'greatest Part of the taxable Lands within the said Middle and South Levels, having seen and considered the 'said Proposals, approve thereof, and are willing and consenting that the same should be carried into Exe-'cution: And whereas the effectual Draining and Preserving the said North Level, and the said Lands within 'the Manor of Crowland, which contain together about forty-eight thousand Acres, would be of great 'Benefit and Advantage to the several Proprietors thereof, and of Service to the Publick in general; and if 'the Proposals and Agreements before-mentioned are carried into Execution, it is apprehended and believed 'that the same may be effectually drained and preserved;' But in regard the same cannot be effected, or the Money necessary for that Purpose raised, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; Be it therefore enacted, &c.
